Plymouth were unable to fulfill this fixture and the club was on the verge of leaving the League. Although Plymouth continued the fixture was never run because one of the conditions for Plymouth to rejoin was that the match was awarded to Belle Vue. Also Plymouth had to pay Belle Vue £250.

Fairbairn's exclusion in heat 7 was controversial. Fighting for third with Greenwood, Fairbairn touched him and slewed over the white line out of control. He made sure he gained nothing allowing Greenwood to go by then regained the track. He caught and passed Greenwood fairly but the steward disqualified him for crossing the white line. In heat 8 Kilmister nearly came off and took Jack Parker down. Barrowclough laid down in avoidance.

Norman Parker was not really fit after his fall in heat 2 but tried to carry on. He was not the same rider as usual and Harringay missed his normal points tally.

Frank Arthur also was off form after an injury.

Last heat decider. Tom Farndon roared off into the lead but Cliff Parkinson and Norman Parker nicely closed off George Newton to share the points and win the match for Harringay. George was right with them trying his best to get through and Tom Farndon was not that far ahead. On the last lap Tom slowed abruptly and the Harringay pair were taken by surprise. George Newton split them by coming through the middle. Tom had done enough, kept his lead and New Cross had an away win.

Heat 9, Walthamstow 2 points down and their best pair Burton and Moore to take on Farndon and Newton. It looked like a good finish to a good match. Sadly however Burton and Moore came into contact soon after the start and New Cross had the match.

Jack Parker and Lionel Van Praag had a great scrap in heat 7 with Gordon Byers pitching in as well. Van Praag led most of the race with Parker right behind him fending off Byers. Jack fought through on the first bend, last lap but Lionel passed him down the back straight. They were level round the last bend. Parker had a big slide. Praag shut off just slightly but it was enough for Parker to win by a length.

Last heat third lap and the order was Pymar, Arthur, Bishop, Leavis. A drawn heat that would give Haringay a one point away win. Phil was comfortably ahead of Leavis but nothing is ever a cert in Speedway. Phil fell, Leavis was through and the one point victory went to The Dons.
