Heat 6. Tom Farndon was excluded for a false start but he did not break the tapes. Tom got a real flyer and had to duck under the tapes to avoid breaking them. The normal practice in 1935 was to have a restart with all 4 back if this happened. For some reason the steward decided to make an example of Tom.

The terrible crash that was to cost the great Tom Farndon his life happened in the last event. Besides the grievous loss to his young family the world of speedway was plunged into shock and mourning. Arguably the greatest rider of his day the memory of Tom Farndon lives on. R.I.P.
