Phil Bishop crashed with Danny Lee in heat 5. Phil finished up with his front wheel through the fence and was excluded from the rerun. Jones eventually crashed when leading the rerun after losing an amazing struggle for control that was described as a "Western Rodeo". Hart rode right around the outside of the other three in heat 7. Dixon came down in his efforts to keep up.

Birmingham were depleted by injuries already and Danny Lee had to pull out of this match after 2 rides. The strange situation whereby Birmingham used 9 riders was caused by a misunderstanding. Jack Hyland was programmed at number 8 but was unfit. Lionel Stanger was present and brought in at the last minute. Stanger was not eligible however because he was contracted to Sheffield. After 1 ride the mistake was realised and Ron Mason took his place.

Morton miraculously saved Dell from serious injury in heat 8. Dell came down right in front of Morton who had no option but to swerve violently. Morton was heading straight for the fence. He just managed to put the bike down without further mishap.

This was a very good match. The race of the night was heat 9 when Wells kept Grosskreutz behind for 3 great laps. The crowd were on their feet roaring support but Wells went just that bit too wide and Max was through.

Harris injured his hand in a bad fall.

Stan Dell first reserve replaced Jack Tidbury second reserve in heat 13. This meant that Tidbury was only given one ride. Lea Bridge protested on the basis that reserves were entitled to a minimum of 2 rides. Nothing came of the protest.

Leeds were very frustrated at having to be without George Greenwood. George was riding at Norwich for England against the Dominions. Max Grosskreutz was not eligible to ride in the International but was allowed to ride against Leeds by "the powers that be".

Certainly hard to see any sense in this. Leeds took a whacking and the crowd understandably booed their way through the match.

The racing was spoiled by heavy rain.

The Hackney boys constantly outgated their opponents and there was little passing on the tricky surface.

The times for heat 1 and heat 14 were the joint fastest of the match. This was no coincidence. Each time Max Grosskreutz was up against Lloyd Goffe. Max was challenged harder than ever before at The Firs. In one of the races Goffe led Grosskreutz for 2 laps.

Sheffield were without Eric Blain who did not arrive.

In the second half Frank Goulden lowered the track record to 67.2 seconds in a match race against Alec Statham. At this time Alec was making a name for himself with Harringay in th first division but he had been a home favourite at Bannister Court in 1936.

Alec lost his match against Frank Goulden but won 2 others against Dallison and Griffiths in fast times.

The match was originally scheduled for Wednesday 27 July but was rained off, In heat 13 Wal Morton picked up too much grip and was thrown off backwards as the bike reared over. In a display of athletic fitness Wal somehow controlled the fall and converted it into a leap onto the centre green. Before the match Frank Goulden made a special attempt on his track record of 67.2 seconds. In a fantastic demonstration of skill and speed on a superbly prepared track Frank took the record to 64.8 seconds

Heat 13 was very unusual. At the first attempt Tidbury brought Jones off in a very ambitious lunge up the inside. They both went a purler and Tidbury was excluded from the rerun. The remaining riders took the second start and Powell shot into the lead. Lemon fell and in avoidance Jones went well onto the grass. Jones thought he would be disqualified but cruised along just in case. Then Powell fell and Jones found himself winning. He continued cruising, was not disqualified and toured to the finish in 106 seconds!! Jones was commended for his avoidance of Lemon.

Only 5 Sheffield riders turned up for this match initially and remarkably defeated The Hawks at Custom House. Brailsford was contacted very late and arrived half way through the match. The ACU were not happy with this state of affairs and penalised Sheffield severely. The match was awarded 70/0 to West Ham.
