Fleetwood 41 Ashfield 42 Wednesday, 1st August 1951 [National League Div 2]

A bit of bad luck for Fleetwood, was good fortune for the Giants, when trailing by four points at heat eight first Dick Fisher fell in a tight first bend, and then Don Potter who was chasing Bruce Semmens hard suddenly stopped on the third lap as a shower of sparks flew from his machine gifting a 5-0 to Ashfield.

That was the turning point in the meeting, although Fleetwood fought hard and even got back into the lead by the odd point it was the Combination of Willie Wilson and Cyril Cooper in heat 14 who won the match with a 4-2 over Jeff Crawford.
