CLEVELAND TROPHY

Thursday, 11th May 1961

{Raced at Middlesbrough}

Most of the Edinburgh side were involved in this meeting, although Don Wilkinson ran out the winner with 13 points he presented the trophy to Dick Campbell, claiming that Dick was the worthy winner after a strange decision from the referee to an incident in heat 20.

Dick was unbeaten at that point, and lined up along side Vic Lonsdale (11) and Geoff Pymar also on (11) and Slant Payling on 7 points. From the start Pymar and Lonsdale reached the first bend ahead of Dick, but were involved in a crash resulting in the race being stopped, and all four riders invited back for the rerun, but Geoff Pymar was unable to take part, so reserve Derek Buckle took his place.

On arriving at the starting gate Buckle turned round back along the track resulting in his exclusion light coming on, immediately the other three riders turned back only for the referee to exclude all the riders in the race, and declare the race void.

Don Wilkinson was presented with the trophy, but stated that Dick had beat him fair and square claiming that Dick was the best rider on the night, so he handed the trophy over to Dick to the tumultuous cheering from the crowd.

DON WILKINSON A TRUE SPORTSMAN.

Doug Templeton finished down the scores with one win in his 8 point haul.
