

1939

Bob Sparks and Bruce Venier did not ride in British speedway in 1939 and Elwood Stilwell went to Glasgow. Two newcomers were the Australians Billy "Cyclone" Lamont previously with Sheffield and Syd Littlewood who had ridden for Norwich. Mid-season signing George Gower from Crystal Palace was injured after just one appearance. Jack Tidbury signed late in the season following Middlesbrough's closure. The outbreak of World War 2 meant the season was not completed but Newcastle were awarded the Division Two championship and they were also winners of the English Trophy and top of the North Group in the Union Cup when the war intervened.

During the war George Pepper was an RAF pilot. He was awarded the DFC and Bar but was killed in a flying accident on 17 November 1942.
