

1978

Sixteen years old Kenny Carter was signed on loan from Halifax to replace Phil Kynman who rode for Hull but otherwise the same seven who ended the previous season started this. In heat two of the match with Mildenhall on 3 April Chris Prime crashed into the home straight safety fence on the last lap. He was rushed to hospital where he was found to be dead on arrival. Australians Rod Hunter and Kevin Macdonald and New Zealander David Bargh made their first visits to this country. New Zealander Graeme Stapleton was also signed on loan from Wimbledon. After he had ridden in one match Hunter moved to Glasgow who he rode for once before returning to Newcastle. The promising Macdonald broke his leg after only three league appearances and was out for the season. The side was again troubled by injury and Robbie Blackadder and Neil Coddington both had three spells on the sidelines and Robbie Gardner suffered a back injury in early June which troubled him for the rest of the season.

Tom Owen represented Newcastle in the National League Riders' Championship at Wimbledon on 23 September and scored nine points.

Tom Owen scored thirteen points and Robbie Blackadder scored seven points as Newcastle finished second to Ellesmere Port in the National League Pairs Championship at Halifax on 15 July.

Tom Owen, Graeme Stapleton and Kenny Carter qualified for the final of the Warners Grand National held at Hackney on 9 September and scored nine, eight and six points respectively. In qualifying Owen had won the Northern Final at Newcastle on 28 August with fourteen points from second-placed Carter with thirteen.

Tom Owen won the Silver Helmet after beating Bob Coles for the vacant title and successfully defended it throughout the season.

With a score of fourteen points Tom Owen won the Kentish Times Trophy for the fourth year in a row at Crayford on 8 August. He also won the Herts Gold Cup at Rye House on 18 June scoring thirteen points and beating Kelvin Mullarkey in a run-off and the Golden Wonder Olympiad at Edinburgh on 8 September scoring fourteen points and beating Martin Dixon in a run-off for first place.

Former Newcastle rider Ole Olsen scored thirteen points and won the World Championship Final at Wembley on 2 September.
