NOTE: Swindon rode the meeting under protest, having objected to the BSPA Management Committee decision to grant Peterborough a rider replacement facility for the absent Troy Batchelor. The Australian was due to appear in a Grand Prix qualifying meeting at Miskolc, Hungary, two days later on Saturday 12 June and the Panthers' promotion claimed that he would be unable to travel to the event in time for the Friday practice if he took his place in the Knock-Out Cup tie at Blunsdon. However, it was the Robins' contention that considering both Mads Korneliussen and Morten Risager took their respective places in the Swindon side, yet were also due to ride in the same meeting in Hungary, disproved that theory. Subsequently, their protest was not upheld.
