BRITAIN BEAT OVERSEAS

CHAMBERLAIN STARS FOR THE OVERSEAS

Britain beat Overseas in the fifth and final match in this seasons series of Second Division International Test matches. Britain, in winning 80-28 completed the rout of the Overseas riders, who failed to win a single match.

So strong were the "home" side that the services of the two reserve Harry Bastable and Yarmouth's Terry Courtnell were not called on. Perhaps it was just as well that Brian Crutcher and Ken Middleditch were engaged in a league match at Ashfield-had they been available and so almost certainly in the British team-the slaughter might have been complete and absolute. To date, International meetings previously held at Yarmouth had provided close and thrilling racing.

It was Britain's biggest win of the five meetings and, with the Overseas team dogged by various mishaps, the match proved too one sided to produced many thrills. Most of the excitement came in the races in which Yarmouth's young Australian, Johnny Chamberlain-a member of the Overseas team-was concerned. Particularly when matched against his Yarmouth team-mates, Fred Brand and Bob Baker.

With Britain leading 22-8, Chamberlain tried gallantly to give Overseas their first heat win in the sixth race. He took the lead from Baker in great style, but fell on the third lap. In heat 12, however, he was out in front at the first bend and kept there to the end, and followed this with another rousing win in heat 15. In spite of a bad start he inflicted Bob Baker's only defeat

Chamberlain, with 9 points was the Overseas top scorer and his efforts were the highlight of a poor display by the Overseas team against a powerful Britain line-up which, beside Baker and Brand, included riders of the other Second Division teams who always seemed very much at home on the Caister Road track in league meetings.

At the half way stage, Britain led 41-12, and in all they won 12 races by maximum points, two by 4-2 margins, with four shared. Overseas brought in their reserves, Peter Harris (Yarmouth) and Fitzpatrick (Stoke), in the second half after Frank Boyle and Charlie New had had machine trouble. Harris with 3 points from his four rides again proved to the Yarmouth fans that he was another good prospect. Attendance 7,315

YARMOUTH GAIN RECORD WIN ROY BOWERS SCORES PAID MAXIMUM

Of the fourteen heats Yarmouth won twelve by the 5-1 margin and another by 4-2. In the remaining heat they were assured of yet another 5-1 win when Johnny Chamberlain, riding second to Terry Courtnell, crashed at the last bend, and the Liverpool riders unexpectedly filled second and third places for a 3-3.

Yarmouth now look a very strong side. Fred Brand scored a maximum, and Terry Courtnell, Reg Reeves, recorded paid maximums and did the vastly improved Roy Bowers, who scored his first paid maximum. Such was the difference in the two teams that Peter Harris and Vic Ridgeon, Yarmouth's two reserves both scored 8 points from their four rides. Five Liverpool riders equalled this score, but from twenty rides.

Only Bill Griffiths impressed in a lack-lust Liverpool side, with the Yarmouth riders winning by big margins, except in one heat. That was when Griffiths divided Reeves and the slow starting Baker. Griffiths showed more fight than anyone else in the Liverpool team.

In heat 8 he was battling with Ridgeon for second place when he crashed at the last bend and his teammate Eric Smith ran into the safety fence in avoiding him. Whist Smith extracted his machine; Griffiths pushed his machine to the winning line for third place. Then he collapsed and needed first-aid. He came round in time to watch the next heat, but did not appear for his fourth ride.

It was far too easy for Yarmouth, who scored their biggest win to date. Engine troubles did not help the unfortunate Liverpool team, who looked thoroughly uncomfortable on the track. Liverpool only had only seven riders as Don Potter was missing.

In the second half for the Great Ormesby Scratch Race Peter Robinson, the Liverpool captain became the only Chad to win a race all evening, over Baker in a time of 74.8. Reeves then defeated Chamberlain in heat 2 and Reg Morgan, who had won the first race in the second half, came second in his heat to Brand with a time of 75.6. Morgan's time was a good one, but it was just beaten by the other two second placed riders, Baker 75.6 and Chamberlain 75.4. Chamberlain won the final, with a time of 74.8 from Brand, Robinson and Reeves.

Vic Ridgeon

After taking a bad crash at the start of the season at White City. Vic had started to recover some of the form, which had made him a good prospect at the end of last season. He had taken over from the out-of-form Reg Morgan.
