Attendance 4906. This was quite a good crowd for Southampton. The average was around 4000. Sadly it was not enough in those days to be viable. Promotions in 1932 were looking for 8000 to keep running. Banister Court closed to speedway for 3 years. The league campaign continued at Lea Bridge in east London.

In contrast the opening league match at Lea Bridge attracted 12,000. This marked the revival of the track after a period of closure because of allowing betting. The name of the team had not been decided at this stage so they rode as "The Saints" and kept the Southampton light blue colours. At this time Norman Parker was a highly spectacular leg trailer. One report described him as "much safer than he looked"!

5 races in a row with only 2 finishers. Is this a record for races with 4 riders starting?

Syd Jackson had one of those matches. Besides only finishing 1 of his 3 rides Syd fell off on the pre match parade!

Both Jack Ormston and Roy Dook were injured in a heat 1 crash and were out of the meeting. Heat 8 was superb with Syd Jackson at his best. Lees and Byers kept him behind for 3 laps by expert team riding. Somehow Jackson found a gap and picked them both off on the last lap.

Plymouth were edging closer every match to their first victory. No CMA team building in those days. New league teams had to find the money to sign up top riders and this was very difficult. The Plymouth side had no real stars but were beginning to function well as a solid team. Riders like Clibbett, Spencer, Collins and Pearce could produce great performances at the top of their form. Bill Clibbett equalled Tom Farndon's track record at this meeting for example.

Frank Pearce broke his arm in a bad multiple crash in heat 5. There was a long delay for medical attention and the rerun was deferred to after heat 9.

Historic home win for Plymouth. Most star riders were with the London teams and Belle Vue.

Coventry had Syd Jackson but Plymouth's strength in depth was enough for them to taste victory.

The injury to Frank Pearce was a big blow just when things were looking up.

Many thanks to Allen Trump for the update information.

If there was a team with more problems than Plymouth it was Sheffield. They were devastated by injuries. They could only raise a team for this fixture by borrowing Chun Moore and Len Woods from Belle Vue. To make things worse they lost Austin Humphries with a shoulder fracture in his first ride. On top of that Eric Blain got lost on the way and did not arrive.

In the first run of heat 1 Sheffield lost Eric Blain. Eric fell heavily and was out with concussion.

A bad start but sadly for Sheffield this was the shape of things to come.

Heat 8 spelled disaster for Max Grosskreutz. Max was stopped from using his intended bike because of an illegal tyre. To meet the time limit Max borrowed a bike. He was not comfortable with this bike, crashed and broke his jaw. The injury was troublesome for many weeks.

Attendance 12,000.

Jack Dixon should have been in the Sheffield team but he fell on the pre match parade and aggravated a wrist injury. The team's problems became serious in this match. Charlie Hornby broke his collar bone in heat 2. Humphries was out with bad cuts to the face after being thrown into a lamp standard in heat 5. A temporary consolation was that Squib Burton was now back to top form with a maximum against Wembley plus a track record.

Tommy Allott won all his races at this meeting including the non league events. Roy Barrowclough's car let him down and he missed his League match heats. Chun Moore and Len Woods were on loan from Belle Vue. Without Burton, Dixon, Hornby and Humphries (injured in this match) Sheffield had to borrow riders to field a team.

The management decided to withdraw from the forthcoming National League Championship

Frank Arthur pulled out of heat 1 due to his heavy fall in the BIC clash with Tom Farndon. There was a first bend pile up involving Bishop and Clibbett. Chapman laid his bike down. No reruns for that kind of thing in those days. Spencer roared off on his own. Jack Bishop remounted but was miles behind and Bert lapped him.

All 4 came down in heat 3 and it was a case of who could get back on and finish.

Heat 9 - In the first run Bill Stanley and John Deeley were racing very close and hard right out on the fence. It got too close to the fence and Stanley became trapped. His bike locked into Deeley's. Bill was no longer in control being dragged along with his bike hooked at the back of Deeley's. John stopped when he realised what was happening. Stanley sprained his ankle and Deeley was excluded.

Employment regulations were affecting non Commonwealth riders. Wimbledon lost Ray Tauser because of this. Ray did not leave the UK as quickly as the authorities wished and he was actually served with a Deportation Order! Ray was allowed back and next rode on 1 July 1932 in Wimbledon's home London Cup tie with Stamford Bridge.

In the first run of heat 5 quick thinking prevented disaster. Arthur Tims and Bill Pitcher crashed. It was a big one and Bill finished up unconscious, pinned under both bikes. The machines caught fire. Very quickly a crowd of helpers ran on and pulled the bikes away. They initially smothered the flames with cinders. Bill was dragged to safety but naturally took no further part in the meeting. Prominent among the rescuers was Johnnie Hoskins.

Heat 1 - Jack Jackson was holding second splitting the powerful Ormston Watson pairing on a track he knew well. Colin Watson came under him, slid out and knocked Jack off. Colin fell also. Watson excluded and a rerun? Not in those days. There was a rule but it was not often applied. Colin remounted for second and Jack pushed a long way for third. He collapsed with the effort. Praag was excluded in heat 3 for crossing the white line but he did it in avoiding the fallen Lupton.

Joe Abbott and Frank Charles gave a masterly demonstration of team riding to keep out Colin Watson for 3 laps. Colin was still in there right behind them on the last bend. For whatever reason the Belle Vue men suddenly left a wide gap and Colin was through it like a rocket to take a 5/1 with Jack Ormston.

Attendance 45,000.

Sheffield's miserable time continued. Crippled by injuries they turned up at Wembley without a reserve. Both Allott and Peel fell in heat 7 and Peel was carried off with torn knee ligaments. The race was re-run with three riders and Byers fell leaving Lees and Allott as the only finishers. Unable to field competitive teams Sheffield only carried on in the NSA Trophy to ensure it was not disrupted and after its completion withdrew from the National League competition.

The West Ham track came in for serious criticism in Speedway News. Nothing had been done since the previous week. Belle Vue were furious and threatened to walk out. Frank Varey blasted around for 2 spectacular laps then switched off the fuel in protest. Langton and Hastings pulled out of a heat for no apparent reason. The Belle Vue riders mainly rode around, not racing. Jack Harris (the Belle Vue manager) and all his team were fined by the ACU.

The track was back in bad shape again and this was partly the cause of the various accidents shown above. It was unusual for Bluey Wilkinson to fall twice in 3 rides.

Arthur Jervis performed miracles to win heat 5 having done 2 laps with a flat tyre.

Heat 5 was very costly to Plymouth. Rye was out early. Clibbett fell and Ellmore's bike packed up. Both of them pushed a very long way. Clibbett got his 2 points but was out of the match exhausted. Ellmore heroically pushed most of the way round. Nobody bothered to tell him that he had exceeded the time limit and was therefore disqualified. Billy was out of the match as well.

The team manager came in for a lot of criticism. Heat 8 only had 3 riders, Ellmore was exhausted after Heat 5.

A clash between 2 of the League's strongest pairings took place in heat 4, Case and Lamont against Langton and Varey. Langton led for over 2 laps then Case got by. Eric tried everything to repass but fell in the effort. Billy Lamont got round Eric somehow but Frank Varey laid his bike down. Langton remounted to claim 1 point.

Squib Burton was again badly injured and out for the season. In his heat 7 fall he got tangled up with the bike. It took Squib a little while to free himself. Once up he was knocked down by a following rider and sustained a compound fracture to the arm. Safety systems and procedures were not what they are now. Races could be stopped by the steward but in practice this did not happen as often as now.

A fantastic hard fought match full of great racing. Greenwood's defeat of Huxley in heat 6 was top class. Huxley made the start and normally that was the last anyone saw of him especially at Wimbledon. Greenwood rode right round the outside of him and then held off persistent challenges. The home crowd were ecstatic with the last heat 5/1 to take the match. Many ran onto the track and carried Case and Lamont back to the pits on their shoulders.
