A good win by Wimbledon who were without Syd Jackson. Also Vic Huxley was not up to his best form. Wal Morton rode well for his 5 points matching Bob Harrison, his opposite number in the Belle Vue team. On the 2 occasions they met Morton won hard fought races against Harrison for a second and a third.

In the first run of heat 2 Jackson was leading when he overslid, spun and stopped right in front of Phillips. Wal ran into Syd head on and both were stretchered off. Syd came back later in the match and Wal's injuries were cuts and bruises, less than had been feared. Gordon Byers was excluded for forcing Geoff Pymar towards the fence causing him to fall. Charles' engine died as the tapes went up in heat 18

This match was unusual and gave rise to ill feeling. Harringay turned up a man short and completely rearranged the programmed team. Presumably to give themselves flexibility they put their top 2 Jack Parker and Jack Ormston at reserve. The Hackney fans were furious. Also every heat in the programme had to be altered and it made the match hard to follow with the identity of riders sometimes in doubt due to the availability of star men at reserve. Harringay's actions were criticised as unsporting but they were not against the rules.

This was a good hard fought match as the score suggests. Wilkinson deserved his maximum. Unbelievably he blasted around the outside of Dick Case to pass him in heat 6. This move was not pulled off on Dick very often and least of all on his own track. The next time they met Dick was held up in the first bend jockeying and fell in his strenuous efforts to make up the lost ground.

Norman Parker was trying hard to pass Tom Farnndon in heat 2 but lost it and unfortunately took out his team mate. Norman's battle with Joe Francis in heat 14 lasted the full 4 laps and it was very close to a dead heat finish, Norman getting the verdict from the Steward.
Frank Arthur made his 1935 debut in the second half.
Attendance 18,000.

Harringay lost Les Wotton in heat 2 after a heavy fall. Reports differ about contact with another rider. Some say there was a brilliant avoidance . Others say Les was run over.  Les was badly shaken up and out of the match.  Bill Pitcher did not ride after heat 9 due to a troublesome knee injury that kept flaring up.  Attendance 40,000.

In heat 4 Ormston got out of control and hit Eric Langton's back wheel. Langton had to retire. Ormston stayed on but fell in the lead later and remounted for third.  Ormston was unwell and unable to ride in heat 18.  Despite this Jack rode a great race in heat 13. Outgated, he kept forging close to Eric Langton but not quite catching him. Jack saved his best for the last bend, came through and held it to win by less than a length.
