Tommy Price, on loan from Wembley, had a good season with Cardiff then Nottingham in 1936. The ability which took him to the 1949 World Championship was not yet apparent but Tommy was making major progress. At this stage he was very fast but sometimes unsteady. A typical example was heat 12 where he fell whilst leading. He swiftly remounted and unbelievably fought back into the lead again. However Tommy came down once again in his efforts and this time was out of the race.

Ted Bravery fell causing heat 3 to be rerun. Ted was back in the rerun because in those days you were only out of the rerun for unfair riding or injury. There was no "primary cause" rule.												6	Mike	Erskine	1	1		2
Ted won the rerun and it was the unfairness of this sort of situation that led to the introduction of the "primary cause" exclusion.												7	Bert	Spencer			1	2	3
The attendance was less than 2000. This was worrying as in the thirties 6000 to 8000 was considered a break even figure for financial expenses.																33
