Morton won heat 12 but his points were not counted. He was not programmed to ride but it seems he was allowed in to give the crowd value for money. There was a lot of flexibility and discretion used in those days especially at Provincial League and amateur tracks.

It was in heat 10 of this meeting that Stan Hart was involved in a crash that cost him his life. Stan, aged 23, was the younger brother of Oliver Hart and was showing great promise. Stan died from his injuries during the meeting. His death was announced to the crowd and the meeting was abandoned in respect. Stan fell on the back straight when flat out in a tremendous battle with Malcolm Craven. Malcolm was at full blast trying to overtake Stan down the straight and had no chance to avoid him when he suddenly fell. Malcolm was hurled through the air and was incredibly lucky to escape injury. Witnesses were of the opinion that Stan's front tyre burst throwing him in front of Malcolm at full speed.
