Joe Abbott was unable to line up for Belle Vue because of injuries he incurred racing in Australia in the winter.

The score chart shows the helmet colour scheme in use at Belle Vue in 1938. Due to the match formula some riders changed colours depending on the heat line ups.

Belle Vue was the only first division club not using the helmet colour set up we all know today.

George Newton hit the fence in heat 6 and Jack Hargreaves was thrown and injured in avoiding him. Newton was excluded from the rerun for being the main cause of the race being stopped. He escaped with shock and bruises. Exclusion for "primary cause" was a new rule at the time. Milne and Kitchen collided at the start of heat 12. Oliver Langton had a big lead when his chain snapped.

Belle Vue's first home defeat of the season. Things looked good for New Cross who were already at the top of the table.

Varey came through the field in heat 1 eventually having only 2 lengths over Greatrex at the finish. Milne's terrific time in heat 6 was the result of a race long battle royal with Kitchen.

Like the previous league match a month earlier this one came to a last heat decider. The Aces needed a 3/3 to clinch the match. Wembley's Tommy Price looked the favourite to win so the BV riders needed to keep out promising junior Malcolm Craven. Up went the tapes and Jack Hargreaves' bike seized solid. Oliver Langton made the start and cheered on by 30,000 Manchester fans held off Price's challenges. The Aces got there by 2 points.

Belle Vue, without Abbott, Harrison and Oliver Langton took a whacking at home. This was the Aces second home league defeat of the season, an unusual occurrence pre-war.

Belle Vue adopted the helmet colour scheme used at most tracks since late 1931 and still in use today.

Bristol were without Bill Clibbett who was ill.

The start to the match was unexpected. Jack Parker fell on the first bend and Cordy Milne lost a lot of ground avoiding him. Bill Pitcher took advantage of the situation and shot away with Bill Maddern chasing. Maddern caught Pitcher and for 3 laps they had a superb wheel to wheel battle. On the last bend Maddern cut inside in a brilliant move to take a narrow win which was not expected of him at first division level.

Dick Case was excluded from the rerun of heat 7 because he was judged to have cut in on Bill Maddern, causing him to fall. Maddern injured a hand.

Bill Clibbett was timed out of heat 6 and his place taken by Shepherd. Bill was a superb

"knee in the dirt" leg trailer, always great to watch.

Eric Langton withdrew from this match but no reason was made known publicly. This caused speculation in the national press that it was an "unlucky" date as he had once been in a major car accident on May 6. As no action was taken by the SCB Langton must have provided a legitimate excuse. There was insufficient watering. The track was extremely dusty and bikes were getting badly filled up spoiling the racing. The view of the riders on the bends was badly obscured by clouds of dust.

Clibbett's unexpected win over Jack Milne in heat 9 was well earned. From the start Mitchell got the lead with Milne covering him in second. Clibbett was hovering around watching for a chance. It came at the end of lap 1. Milne went slightly too close to Mitchell and touched his back wheel. Milne had to ease off to keep control and Clibbett was through in a flash. He passed Mitchell quickly and was away. Milne took off after him like a rocket but it was no use. To make a perfect race for Bristol Duggan got past Mitchell as well.

Heat 6 had a strange refereeing decision. Dixon fell on the first bend but no red light came on. Not until the end of lap 1 that is. The riders shut off and slowly toured round for the rerun. The red lights went out and the race was back on except that Bill Clibbett was flagged off for boring. So Rogers beat Croombs in an unusual match race. Ronnie Greene and Johnnie Hoskins were outraged and did not hesitate to make their feelings plain to the Steward over the loudspeakers. They were fined by the ACU for doing so!

Alec Statham suffered a groin injury in the previous evening second half at Bristol. He was leading heat 2 by a good margin when he had to pull up in great pain and could not take his other rides. Wotton lost a win in heat 2 when his chain came off on the run in.

Reg Lambourne had a great ride in heat 4 passing both Lowther and Fairbairn. Cordy Milne let him through for a fine win.

A rare mistake by one of the sport's greats. Jack Parker had Bluey Wilkinson well beaten in heat 1. That did not happen often. Jack slowed down at the end of lap 3 thinking he saw the chequered flag. By the time he realised his error Bluey was way out in front.

Heat 2 was stopped because Tommy Croombs was down and shaken. Stevenson had stopped earlier. The steward ordered a rerun with just the Harringay riders as both Hammers were out when the race was stopped. Neither Tiger left the start in heat 5. Ormston looped and Statham packed up! In the first run of heat 7 Gibb lost control and whacked Bill Pitcher into the fence. Bill was unfit for the rerun and Jimmy Gibb was excluded.

Harringay had lost Norman Parker. Norman was badly injured the previous week during heat 6 of a League match against New Cross. The track was waterlogged and the meeting was called off after Norman's crash without a rerun. The management took the view that 6 heats had been held and did not allow readmission. Unfortunately a few spectators were very angry and damaged the track and some equipment. Norman Parker cracked the bone in the arm that had been broken in 1937 and had given him serious trouble. Eric Chitty was injured in heat 7. Eric broke his arm and chipped a wrist bone.

Johnson withdrew with 'flu after 2 rides.

Harris rode in the second half in the selection match for the Lea Bridge Div 2 team.

At this time he was not riding for Harringay although programmed. Possibly there was an arrangement with Lea Bridge? (Lea Bridge was essentially a "Harringay Reserves" team).

The score was not close but there was some good speedway at this match. Newton and Johnson gave a great display of team riding in heat 1 and try as he might a determined Bluey Wilkinson could not break through. In heat 9 the expected battle between Wilkinson and Milne was waged hard. Bluey barged his way by taking no prisoners. In heat 12 New Cross had a good lead and Jack took a "safe second" approach. Ron Johnson courageously rode despite a bad arm injury from a crash the previous night at West Ham.

A safety campaign was in full swing and several riders were surprised to find their helmets confiscated by the officials. A few undertook to purchase the latest equipment and were allowed to use their helmets on a temporary basis. Those who argued were without helmets but were allowed to borrow the acceptable ones from their team mates. These of course may not have fitted properly but this was safety first 1938 style!

Having drawn at Plough Lane on the Monday Wembley would not have expected a last heat decider at home. That is what happened and to make matters worse Eric Gregory ran over the white line in the last heat and was flagged off. However George Wilks had a good lead and hung on to give Wembley a 2 point victory.

Wembley missed "Mr Maximum" Lionel Van Praag injured in the First Test at Belle Vue the previous Saturday. Wembley had the lead at times up to heat 8 but could not hold on.

Milne and Mitchell formed a superb unbeaten partnership, not often achieved by away sides at Wembley. This won the match for New Cross.

Stevenson's crash in heat 2 looked odd. Holding a big lead with Croombs from the Lions he seemed to collapse and was hurled over the handlebars. Croombs went down too after a desperate swerve to try and miss Tiger. Stevenson went to hospital. In heat 14 the same spot suddenly claimed Bluey Wilkinson when he was fighting a big battle with Van Praag.

The way Bluey went down resembled Stevenson earlier but fortunately he was not injured.

Unusually for Wembley problems with the surface were put forward as the cause of the accidents.

Before this match Lionel Van Praag had not dropped a single point in League matches at Wembley all season. It seems that it never pays to tempt fate. Much publicity was given to Praag's achievement before this match and so that put paid to Lionel's fantastic run. Bill Kitchen was on great form and had been doing some great swoops around the outside all match. He did it to Van Praag on lap 1 of heat 10 and disappeared.

First of a double header with Norwich in the National Trophy as the second event.

Well deserved away maximum for young Aussie Bill Longley beginning to make great strides in the sport. The George Newton/ Tommy Price clash in heat 6 was a real crowd pleaser. The battle was breath taking and the contrast in styles could not have been more marked. Cool arm chair style Price v bustling all angles Newton.

First of double header.

What a different pack of Lions from the ones who were walloped by Wimbledon the previous Thursday. 18 year old Malcolm Craven stormed to 20 points over the double header enhancing his status as a new star in the sport. Lionel Van Praag dropped only 1 point in 24 and that was in the first heat to the equally brilliant Wilbur Lamoreaux. If Alec Jackson gave the boys a talk during the week he certainly did a good job!

The track was soaked and extremely treacherous.

Heat 2 was stopped due to a crash between Gibb and Price. In heat 7 Case and Stevenson ran into each other and retired. Wilks' bike packed up and he exceeded the time limit pushing home. Heat 11 was nasty. Wilks fell and in doing their best to lay their bikes down Gibb and Case suffered badly. Case finished up on top of Wilks' spinning bike and Gibb was hurled clean over the fence. Dick Case badly damaged 3 ribs and had other chest injuries.

Two amazing 0/5 heats cost Wimbledon victory. Lamoreaux had a good lead until the last lap in heat 4. Lammy fell, was quickly back on but not in full control. He hit Lowther and they both went down. Howes came off in avoidance. Lowther pushed home for 2 points. Evans and Key were cruising in the last heat needing only one point for victory. Key went over the white line and was disqualified. On the last lap Evans's bike packed up. The Wimbledon lads swapped bikes and Evans finished to great cheers but the Steward was not falling for that and disallowed the point.

George Newton was injured in the second half. He fell heavily in a 2 lap dash and sustained a fractured wrist. Ron Johnson had friction burns on the neck caused by the tapes in heat 10.

Heat 5 was a great win for Wally Lloyd. He led Milne fair and square all race. Milne made a last bend do or die pass and forced Lloyd very wide and to drop back. Milne was disqualified.

In heat 9 Milne hit the fence in his efforts to overtake Geoff Pymar and was not fit for his last ride.

Heat 12 featured an unusual mix up. Parkinson was disqualified for bumping Little but Cliff continued. This turned into a disaster because later Van Praag fell and Parkinson hit his bike. Parkinson was thrown heavily. Praag was excluded as primary cause and Parkinson was out of the rerun as well through his earlier disqualification.

Unusually these races doubled up as the first 14 heats of the London Cup Final 18 heat match. The London Cup formula was used instead of the League formula.

In the first run of heat 14 all 4 riders were in a pile up. In the rerun both the Dons were down again.
