Note :- In Heat 2 Coventry's Alan Pearce was running in third place on the final lap, when he picked drive and collided with John Edwards who had been directly in front on him. Pearce was thrown from his bike and took a heavy fall, with his helmet taking the full impact of the track surface. The local track doctor attended the stricken unconscious rider was immediately dispatched him off to hospital without fully realising the seriousness of the accident. Pearce never regained consciousness and passed away through the night, due to the severe head injuries he had sustained in the track crash.

Note: There were printing errors in the match programme that had Fundin and Boocock programmed to ride in heat 3, when it should have been Mattingley and Warren. The referee Major C.C. Mason failed to detect it until well into the meeting and then controversially forced Coventry to withdraw Fundin from one of his correctly programmed rides in heat 13 as compensation for his own error. A race in which Coventry then suffered a 1-5 reverse that may well have been different with Fundin in it.

With the heavy margin of defeat the Coventry team manager Vic Emms just let the issue lie on the night, but would learn to regret his magnanimous decision come the return leg.
