The second attempt saw Edward Kennett clip Kenneth Hansen's dirt deflector entering turn four, and he was disqualified as the primary cause of the stoppage. The third attempt to start the race saw Claus Vissing disqualified for unfair riding after being deemed the cause of Jordan Frampton falling. The fourth start saw Jordan Frampton leading, but Kenneth Hansen dived hard under him entering the third turn. Frampton took avoiding action and fell, whilst Hansen ran straight across the bend and ran into the safety fence. The referee strangely deemed that both riders had fallen separately and as neither remounted he awarded the race as a 0-0!

Note:- Heat 2 - At the first attempt Ricky Wells clipped Kozza Smith's back wheel and fell and was excluded as the primary cause of the stoppage. In the Re-start Jordan Frampton picked up unwanted grip and wiped out both Dawid Stachyra and Kozza Smith. Frampton was excluded for unfair riding. Stachyra was injured in the crash and was ruled out of the rest of the meeting, whilst Smith was clearly in a bad way, but was controversially allowed to go out on his own and struggle around for an unchallenged race win in a time more than 12 seconds slower than the opening race. He immediately pulled out after heat 2, which meant Ipswich were forced to go with just one rider in six of the later programmed races.

After the meeting the Speedway Control Board ruled that Scott Nicholls inclusion in the new Coventry starting 1 to 7 team declaration had not been approved as per SR 15.10.1 and SR 17.4.2. As a result the SCB ruled Nicholls was therefore an illegal rider and deducted his points from the Bees score and amended the result to Coventry 45 - Ipswich 36, which didn't alter the three match points Bees had secured in the meeting. Nicholls had been allowed to ride on the night as the meeting was being filmed live on TV and the British Speedway Promoters Association didn't want to wash the dirty linen in public and make the sport look an embarrassment. Within a few days the BSPA had considered and agreed that Nicholls could in fact ride for Coventry, but at the cost of Jordan Frampton being dropped from the side.
