LEIF WAHLMANN

Leif Wahlmann died on the afternoon of Sunday 29th July following a crash during the European Junior Championship at King's Lynn the previous evening.

Wahlmann (19) suffered severe head and chest injuries in a freak heat 13 accident when his bike seized and Britain's Andy Smith was unable to avoid a collision.

He was rushed to Queen Elizabeth Hospital but never regained consciousness.

Report from Speedway Star w/e August 18, 1984.

"Early evening rain turned this inter-league four team tournament into a complete farce.

Heavy showers had left the track in a waterlogged state, but the meeting which started at 7:45pm, lasted just one lap with Bo Petersen falling on the first bend, then Dave Biles fell on the third turn.

At this moment, several riders were not happy with the conditions, but they did agree that the circuit should have the surplus shale removed. When this was completed, Alun Rossiter and Bo Petersen had a few trial laps, but both riders looked far from happy with the tricky conditions.

However, the riders reluctantly agreed with ACU referee Mick Barnes to continue the meeting, and the re-run of heat 1 eventually took place an hour after the original start.

The race lasted slightly longer this time, but when Dave Biles and Andy Campbell "locked-up" on the first bend of the second lap it was clearly obvious that the meeting - which was then abandoned - should have never been allowed to start."

SOURCE #1: Exeter 1984 Track Review - Speedway Star w/e January 19, 1985.

PUBLISHED FIGURES: British League, British League Cup & Speedway Star Knock-Out Cup Combined H & A.

Keith Millard is reported as having taken a total of 26 rides & Kent Noer is reported as having taken a total of 6 rides.

This anomaly arises from the 08/04 Eastbourne v Exeter match.

Heat 13 was reported as Schwartz, Guglielmi, Eskildsen, Millard, 60.8.

It is believed that this is a mis-print and Noer was the rider in 4th place however this remains unresolved.

Paul Taylor is listed as 'also rode'. Taylor was a Cradley Heath junior borrowed for the 18/04 Cradley Heath v Exeter match.

For the purposes of this file, Taylor is included as a 'guest' rider as he had no other connection to Exeter outwith this fixture.

All other figures published in the review concur with those shown in this file.
