1982 PRE-SEASON

Blantyre Stadium was scheduled for demolition to allow the building of a new dual carriageway (the A725 East Kilbride Expressway). Supporters leaving the stadium on 18th October 1981 thought that they had witnessed the final meeting at the venue which Tigers had called home since July 1977. Planning permission was sought for a move to Craighead Park, home of Blantyre Celtic F.C. and literally yards away behind the second bend of the stadium circuit.

But as the new year dawned the situation was far from clean cut. What follows is a résumé of events in the lead up to the start of the 1982 season as reported in Speedway Star.

2nd January – In an interview with Bob Radford, director David Thomson reports that planning permission has been applied for but formal confirmation will not be forthcoming until the end of January. Having missed the December deadline set down by the B.S.P.A. and S.C.B. to confirm that everything was in order, Thomson moves to assure the controlling bodies that all will be well and Glasgow will be ready to open in April. In a bizarre twist he reveals that the Tigers could, if necessary, begin the season at Blantyre Stadium; the road project has been beset by problems and is behind schedule. He goes on to say that a 15 year lease has been agreed with their new landlords and contractors are standing by to commence work on the new circuit.

6th February – David Thomson confirms Tigers will start the season 'early in April' at Blantyre Stadium. Despite reports to the contrary, planning permission for Craighead Park has been granted and work will begin upon the end of the football campaign. He envisages Glasgow moving into their new home 'mid-season'.

20th February – Following a meeting with Blantyre Celtic officials, Thomson announces that work on the new track is to begin 'almost immediately' and expects it to take 'a couple of months.' To facilitate this, the football club have agreed to vacate their ground by 27th February and will play their remaining home fixtures at a borrowed venue.

28th February – Work begins. The plan to start the season at the old track is shelved. David Thomson confirms that a 10 year lease has been signed.

6th March – The National League fixtures are published. Tigers will begin the season on 3rd April with a visit to Stoke. Friday 9th April is the proposed date for the first fixture at Craighead Park with opposition to be decided.

27th March – Charlie McKinna decides to stay with Glasgow, turning down a move to British League Coventry. However one departure from the 1981 side is confirmed as Nig Close moves to Long Eaton for an undisclosed fee. Glasgow's match at Stoke on 3rd April is cancelled; it has been decreed that, as a new circuit, Tigers must stage a home meeting before they can begin their away campaign. David Thomson concedes that the 22nd April knockout cup tie at Middlesbrough must also be in doubt. He is 'hopeful' that Craighead Park will be ready for 'the end of April'.

10th April – The K.O.C. tie at Middlesbrough is removed from the Speedway Star fixture list though the home leg remains listed for 16th April. Glasgow will ultimately withdraw from the competition.

17th April – Two more 1981 Tigers move to pastures new - Charlie McKinna changes his mind and signs for Coventry for a reputed £10000 fee, while Andy Reid joins Cradley Heath for an undisclosed sum. The monies are gratefully received by the Glasgow promotion who have found the cost of constructing a new circuit from scratch to be well above expectations. David Thomson confirms that Glasgow will open at Craighead Park on 30th April with a visit from Rye House.

Amid fears that the new track would cut up in the wet conditions, the scheduled National League fixture was changed to a challenge match.

There was no further racing after heat 16 due to rain. Results compiled from three marked programmes & Speedway Star.

Scunthorpe: Monday 3rd May 1982 prior to Scunthorpe v Middlesbrough (NL)

Silver Helmet Match Race Championship - April Challenge for vacant title: Steve Lawson v Steve Wilcock (Middlesbrough) - Third Leg

Heat 2: Lawson, Wilcock, 65.1

Lawson wins 2-1

Glasgow Tigers v Weymouth Wildcats Friday 7th May 1982 (National League)

Meeting postponed Thursday 6th. No programme produced.

In the wake of reports received after the opening fixture, the Speedway Control Board ruled that a track inspection would be necessary before any further meetings could be held. This inspection was scheduled to take place on Tuesday 11th May. In the event, with the circuit having soaked up 5 days of continuous rain, the fixture would have been highly unlikely to go ahead.

Meeting postponed - rain.

The meeting was rescheduled for Sunday 31st October at 3 p.m. However the Graham Jones Testimonial meeting at Berwick on the Saturday night was rained off and re-arranged for Sunday evening.
