Wednesday 4th September 1935

Under the heading 'White City of Midlands Planned in Leicester' on the front page of the Leicester Evening Mail it was reported that a big scheme had been launched to transform the Leicester Super stadium into the White City of the Midlands.

The Night Watch Committee had approved the transfer of the licence of the track from Mr W Burrows to its new owner, Mr A Hughes a well-known Manchester sportsman. Hughes planned to stage Ice Hockey and skating, boxing bouts, greyhound racing, athletic meetings and Dirt track racing.

He planned to enter the speedway team into the league in 1936 and to launch a Baseball team.
