DAT 06/10/1982 VENUE: STATION RD

COMPETITION: CENTRAL JUNIOR LEAGUE RIDERS CHAMPI

STEVE BISHOP emerged from a cluster of enthusiastic contenders to become the first Central League Junior Riders' champion on a night of high endeavour at Station Road. The title was decided by a three man run-off, reduced to two when Kevin Smart thumped the boards and went to hospital for examination. In the re-run Steve Mildoon swept ahead but was beaten by Bishop's third lap inside dive and recovery from rearing on the next bend. Had Gary O'Hara not inspected the fence in Heat 9, Smart, in front at the time, may have won outright but he lost the re-run to Mark Stevenson. On the other hand Smart was considered fortunate to escape penalty when, following his determined challenge, Chris Pidcock fell. That was a blow to Prdcock's hopes, as was a hazardous first-race moment for Stevenson who turned a complete circle while being passed by two others and an exclusion for Mitchell Barker with points trouble. The one ludicrous aspect was the inclusion of John Frankland at reserve, a position which should be filled by those of lesser ability. Even if his points did not count he was superior to most in the line-up and thankfully made only one appearance when replacing Barker. Ian James - Speedway Star
