

1938

New promoter, Johnnie Hoskins, brought League speedway in the National League Division Two back to Brough Park in 1938 after a gap of eight years. The team consisted of four Canadians – George Pepper, Bob Sparks, Elwood Stilwell and Bruce Venier, Cumbrian Maurice Stobart who had ridden for Wembley, Yorkshireman Norman Hargreaves who had been at Workington, Fred "Kid" Curtis a Londoner who had previously ridden for West Ham and local men Percy Dunn, who had ridden for Newcastle in 1929, and Norman Newton. After a few disappointing results Rol Stobart, the elder brother of Maurice, returned to the sport having last ridden for Bristol in 1937. Alec Peel, who had ridden for the team in 1929, returned for a short while before leaving to ride for Leeds. The Australian, Reg Hay, was also a newcomer at the same time.

Tragedy struck on 23 July when team manager Spencer Stratton, after an exhibition meeting at Workington, was killed when the car he was driving was involved in an accident near Cockermouth, Cumbria. Three of his passengers, Bob Sparks, Elwood Stilwell and Bruce Venier were injured in the accident.

The team won the Northern Cup despite not racing their last fixture against Birmingham.
