

1979

Kenny Carter rode for British League side Halifax but all of the other riders who had finished 1978 were back. Robbie Gardner, however, only rode in four challenge matches before he was out for the season with a recurrence of his back injury. To the annoyance of other teams Newcastle were allowed to use rider replacement in his absence. Robbie Blackadder, Neil Coddington and Graeme Stapleton all had spells out with injuries and in August Tom Owen badly broke his leg in a second half crash at Newcastle and missed the rest of the season. The side lost three of their last eight home league matches without him. Juniors Paul Brown and Michael Easton filled gaps in the latter part of the season.

Tom Owen qualified to represent Newcastle in the National League Riders' Championship Final but was unable to take part because of his injury.

Tom Owen with seven points and Robbie Blackadder with six represented Newcastle in the National League Pairs Championship at Halifax on 21 July. They were knocked out at the Semi Final stage by the eventual winners Milton Keynes.

Tom Owen qualified for the British Semi Final of the World Championship at Leicester on 22 May and was eliminated after scoring four points. David Bargh and Graeme Stapleton qualified for the Australasian Final in Adelaide on 23 February and were eliminated after each scoring two points.

Tom Owen qualified for the final of the Warners Grand National at Hackney on 18 August and won the title with a fourteen point score. Robbie Blackadder also qualified and scored seven points.

Tom Owen won the Golden Jubilee at Newcastle on 21 May with fourteen points and the Lincolnshire Trophy at Boston on 22 July scoring a fifteen point maximum. For the fifth year in a row he won the Kentish Times Trophy scoring fourteen points at Crayford on 7 August. Rod Hunter scored fifteen points to win the Daily Mirror Kings Cavalcade at Castleford on 12 June.

Former Newcastle rider Ivan Mauger won his sixth World Championship scoring fourteen points in the Final in Chorzow, Poland on 2 September.
