

1980

Tom Owen made two attempted comebacks from his broken leg of the previous season but the pain was too much and he was advised to miss the rest of the season. The rider replacement rule was used for him in his absence. Graeme Stapleton had retired and Neil Coddington remained in Australia and they were replaced by Belle Vue loanees Derek Richardson and Keith Bloxsome both of whom had spent the previous season with Glasgow.

Derek Richardson and Robbie Blackadder represented Newcastle in the National League Pairs Championship at Halifax on 19 July and were eliminated after scoring six points and five points from three rides respectively in their Qualifying Group.

Rod Hunter represented Newcastle in the National League Riders' Championship at Wimbledon on 27 September and scored six points.

Robbie Blackadder qualified for the Warners Grand National at King's Lynn on 21 June and was eliminated at the Quarter Final stage.

On 7 September Berwick were given notice to quit Shielfield Park and raced their remaining three home fixtures at Brough Park.

David Bargh qualified for the Australasian Final of the World Championship in Christchurch on 16 February and was eliminated after scoring two points. In qualifying he had scored fourteen points and finished second, after a run-off for first place with Larry Ross, in the New Zealand Final in Auckland on 2 February. Derek Richardson qualified for the British Quarter Final at Halifax on 27 April and was eliminated with three points.

No Newcastle rider made a challenge for the Silver Helmet during the season.
