

1998

It was back to seven man teams for the new season. Paul Bentley left for Hull and Richard Juul went to Stoke. New riders were young Dane Nicki Pedersen, Brent Werner from Long Eaton who had closed and juniors Jonathan Swales and Malcolm Hogg. Jesper Olsen had four weeks out with a broken collarbone in May. Local junior Steven Jones, who had previously been on loan at Edinburgh, came in for Hogg at the end of June. After three matches Jones was replaced by David McAllan who had been released by Berwick. Pedersen missed the Premier League Fours Semi-Final after breaking two fingers at Exeter. Jonathan Swales lost his place in the side in September and his position was taken by Chris Readshaw followed by Jones and then junior Danny Fairburn.

Nicki Pedersen represented Newcastle in the Premier League Riders' Championship held at Sheffield on 13 September. He scored eleven points and qualified for the final where he finished fourth.

Nicki Pedersen and Jesper Olsen represented Newcastle in the Premier League Pairs held at Newport on 26 July. They scored twelve and four points respectively to finish second in their group but were eliminated in the semi-final.

Nicki Pedersen qualified for the Grand Prix Challenge held at Pardubice, Czech Republic on 3 October where he scored eleven points. Brent Werner qualified for the Overseas Final of the World Championship held at Poole on 14 June and was eliminated after scoring five points.

Nicki Pedersen reached the World Junior Championship Final held at Pila, Poland on 1 August and scored eleven points. In qualifying he had won the Danish round at Herning on 25 April scoring a fifteen point maximum.

Brent Werner won the Northern Riders' Championship at Sheffield on 25 October. He headed the qualifiers with fourteen points and then won the Grand Final from Nicki Pedersen who finished second.
