

2016

Anton Rosen and Christian Henry did not appear in British speedway throughout the season and Simon Nielsen joined Redcar. Having recovered from injury Lewis Kerr joined Ipswich. They were replaced by Robert Lambert who had ridden for Rye House in 2015, Czech international Matej Kus who was transferred from Redcar, the returning Lewis Rose and junior Danny Phillips. Because of riders "doubling-up" Newcastle were forced into using three guests in only their second meeting of the season at Redcar! Tero Aarnio injured his knee and this restricted him to only two early season appearances. Swede Victor Palovaara who had spent the previous season with Glasgow came in to replace him. Rose broke his collarbone in late August and missed the rest of the season. He was replaced by Ashley Morris who had been released by Peterborough.

Matej Kus who scored ten points and Lewis Rose with four represented Newcastle in the Premier League Pairs held at Somerset on 8 July. They were eliminated at the group stage.

Steve Worrall represented Newcastle in the Premier League Riders' Championship held at Sheffield on 11 September and scored five points.

Robert Lambert qualified for the Grand Prix Challenge held in Vetlanda, Sweden on 3 September where he scored one point and failed to qualify.

Robert Lambert was seeded to the World Under-21 Championship Final which was held over three rounds. In the first at King's Lynn on 18 June he jointly topped the qualifiers with fourteen points, won his semi final and finished second in the final to total nineteen points. He scored ten points in the second meeting in Pardubice, Czech Republic on 16 September and finished third in his semi final to bring his points total to eleven and go into the final meeting as joint leader on thirty points. He then scored seven points in the final round in Gdansk, Poland on 2 October to finish in third position over the three rounds.

Robert Lambert scored eleven points and Steve Worrall scored ten points in the British Final held at Belle Vue on 13 June. Both qualified for the final after finishing first and second respectively in the semi-final. They finished third and fourth respectively in the final.

Robert Lambert was runner-up in the British Under-21 Championship Final held at Sheffield on 14 April. He scored a fifteen point maximum in the qualifying heats but was beaten into second place by Josh Bates in the final. Danny Phillips also qualified and scored four points.

Robert Lambert rode for Great Britain in the World Cup Final held at Belle Vue on 30 July. He scored three points as Great Britain finished as runners-up.

Steve Worrall scored seventeen points and partnered Adam Roynon, nine points, to win the Cumberland Pairs Championship held at Workington on 21 May.
