COMPETITION: WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFYING ROUND

The favourites "fell" by the wayside in the Southampton round of the World Championship and it was Oxford's Ronnie Genz who surprised with a fine thirteen point cheque winning effort. Ronnie dropped his points to Crutcher and Craven, both of whom met with bad luck during the evening. Crutcher virtually lost the cheque because of a six penny pot cleaner!! This was put inside the air filter to provide additional protection from dust and was promptly sucked into the carburettor before Brian had gone 30 yards in his first race - exit Crutcher. The offending article was removed and the Southampton ace took his remaining races without further trouble. Craven was badly shut out in two rides and could do nothing with the other riders bunched closely in front of him for the whole four laps. He managed two thirds in these instances but was fortunate to escape injury in his last ride. Phil Clarke pulled up suddenly on the back straight directly in Craven's path. The Belle Vue rider had hardly time to put his bike into a slide before he crashed into Clarke. The impact hurled Craven upright and somehow he regained control and continued the race, such was his effort that he almost pipped Mountford on the line for the second position. The fourth heat proved disastrous for Dick Fisher, after scoring 14 points at Poole the previous evening and two in his first race at Southampton, Dick hit Bradley's rear wheel going into the first corner and crashed heavily into the safety fence. The luckless Fisher was removed to hospital for a check-up and is believed to have aggravated an old shoulder injury. Bradley, Hagon and Geran were consistent scorers and were always a danger to the top men, but the dark horse of the meeting was Leicester's Bryan Elliott; he fell once when second and subsequently beat both Craven and Geran. Southampton's "star" junior Brian Brett came into the competition in place of Bert Edwards and scored over many of his experienced rivals. Speedway Star
