COMPETITION: SOUTHERN RIDERS CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFYING ROUND

Following a first heat defeat at the hands of Southampton's dashing Swede Bjorn Knutsson, World Champion Ronnie Moore coasted home in his remaining rides to win this qualifying round of the Southern Riders Championship. Despite a very slick track the racing was always rather slower than usual. Knutsson in customary style, provided the thrills in heat 6 when he almost turned over at the start. He came through the field but failed to catch a flying Chum Taylor, who is riding with great dash on a motor purchased from Brian Crutcher. Aub Lawson had his moment of glory in heat 10 when he beat Knutsson to the first corner and despite frantic attempts by the Swede to get by he held on to the end. Knutsson's last bend effort will long be remembered for on of the very rare occasions that we in the pits were showered with shale! Ronnie Genz, always at home on the Southampton bowl, was a great performer from the back and thoroughly deserved his 12 points; he had terrific battles with Chamberlain and Andrews and yet another with Alby Golden. This latter tussle was quite a needle affair. First Gerry passed Golden, taking him a trifle wide in the process. Next time round Alby dived underneath and took Ron for a tour around the boards. Undismayed, the Oxford boy kept the taps on and held his lead to win a fine race which, judging from the handshake afterwards, both riders had enjoyed. Mention must be made of a fighting display by Dick Bradley, a very much improved Johnny Chamberlain and an unobtrusive 13 points from Bob Andrews which took him into joint second place. Jim White - Speedway Star

ENGLAND	41.0	67.0	AUSTRALASIA	DATE:	20/09/1960

RESULT:	AWAY WIN	AGREGATE SCORE
----------------	----------	-----------------------

Seldom can an England team have put on a more dispirited display than they did in this the sixth and final Test Match at Southampton. The score of 67 points to 41 in favour of the Australasians is indication of their superiority in all departments. Only Peter Craven was able to halt these points-piling Aussies and without his 14 points the home country would have been in a sorry plight. Broadbanks put in some spirited riding but little can be said for the results of the other England riders who seemed to lack dash on some occasions.

Ron Moore, Briggs and Young were in superb form for Australasia and they received fine support from Chum Taylor, acting as captain on his own track, and Aub Lawson.

Peter Moore dropped a valve in his first ride and did not appear for the next two. There after he registered two second places and helped his team score five maximums heat wins in the last eight races.
