DATE:	28/03/1964
RESULT:	HOME WIN		AGREGATE SCORE

It was "welcome back" after eight years for the Hammers in the opening Easter Trophy match at Norwich. However, which riders will constitute the West Ham team remains a mystery; no fewer than 17 changes were made in their line-up and after leading for three heats they eventually lost by 49-35.

On a very cold night the would-be enthusiasm of the large crowd soon disappeared as engine failures and broken tapes became the order of the night.

The match started as rather a shock for Norwich and Funding on his E.S.O. machine. Reg Luckhurst tore away from the tapes and left both Knutsson and Fundin floundering in the rear to win by the fast time of 69.6 secs. Thereafter Fundin used the JAP and dropped no more points to the opposition.

This was a match of individual performances rather than close racing and all the Norwich team seem sound enough, especially Trevor Hedge, who won the only two races in which he finished, in fine style. An engine failure cost him more points when having a real set-to with Norman Hunter. If Norwich are allowed to keep George Major, things will be fine. His hard, round the fence riding, earned him 7 paid 9 points from three rides.

VENUE COWLEY COMPETITION INTER CITY CHALLENGE CUP

OXFORD 52.0 32.0 WEST HAM DATE: 02/04/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Oxford Cheetahs gave their National League rivals another hint of their newly gained strength when they swamped West Ham on Thursday in an Inter Cities Challenge Match.

The home riders won without the services of their skipper, Jack Geran, who withdrew because of engine trouble, and still took ten of the fourteen heats after the points had been equally divided in the tow opening heats.

The ten yard handicap was too much for Knutsson. He could only manage two seconds and two thirds.

Veteran rider at Cowley Gordon McGregor, and Reg Luckhurst were the Hammers' only heat winners, in heats 6 and 8, when Knutsson partnered them.

But the quick-gating, slick Oxford riders had things all their own way - apart from the unlucky Geran.

Arne Pander raced away to an easy maximum and newcomer How, edged into second place by McGregor in heat 8, romped away to another big score.

And with Ronnie Genz also hitting double figures - it is some time since three Cheetahs did so in a 14-heat match - came further evidence that the Cheetahs could be the team of the year in 1964.

Victory before a 15,000 crowd . . . A scintillating display from skipper Bjorn Knutsson. What more could the new West Ham promotion have asked for?
 This was the big test for the National League. The ambitious 1964 West Ham project was launched with a swinging, sizzling speed meetings for the sport-crazy docklanders.
 And how they loved it. Bjorn the Storm made them gasp as he took the other three riders in heat 1 on the first turn and then proceeded to make short work of his other three match rides and his two second-half outings.
 It included a nerve-shattering heat 14 win over Olle Nygren, the Norwich-based Swede who was on loan to Wimbledon. Olle looked World class as he snapped up 14 points from his five rides, but he just couldn't hold the full-throttle Knutsson.
 Hammers must wish they could get Brian Brett from Swindon for this Robins' loanee took one ride to get used to the big Custom House circuit and then won his other three rides.
 For Wimbledon it was Nygren, Harrfeldt and McAuliffe but that long, long tail restricted their efforts to overhaul those happy Hammers.

WEST HAM 48.0 36.0 SWINDON DATE: 14/04/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Speedway mania has hit dockland, Hundreds of screaming youngsters fought for a closer look at their new idols after this second meeting of the new West Ham promotion.

It took Bjorn Knutsson half-an-hour to battle his way through the mobbing crowd. Reg Luckhurst, already knocked around after a fall in heat 3, was bumped and buffeted. Bobby Dugard was knocked off his feet and souvenir hunters took pounds worth of equipment from Norman Hunter. It was pop-star treatment all the way.

And why not, indeed, for Hammers zipped to another home win, this time for Easter Challenge Cup points against Swindon, and provided a much slicker presentation than their first meeting.

I'm still trying to puzzle out how Knutsson, another maximum for him, got through on the inside of Mike Broadbank in heat 9. There just wasn't any room. I'm still trying to puzzle out why a fighting Norman Hunter was excluded after he went inside Brian Brett on the last bend and the Swindon man came off.

I'm still remembering the sight of Luckhurst travelling 20 yards on his nose to cross the finishing line - minus machine - after that aforementioned spill.

It was that sort of meeting. Throw a paid maximum for debut man Ray Cresp, though I suspect the pairing with Knutsson may have to be split, and a vastly improved effort from Barry Briggs and you've got it in a nutshell.

Speedway is certainly back with a bang.

Some very good racing and a very spirited effort by Swindon to beat the new West Ham team, who won the event by 8 points. Swindon were reinforced by Broadbank but without Ashby who was "down with the mumps" and his place was taken by Leo McAuliffe. The scores became level after race 3 and kept the same until race 7 when Brett's fine win and Teo's second gave the Robins a temporary 4-point lead. An exceedingly fine ride by Knutsson and Cresp in Heat 8 made the score level again - 24 all. A fine team ride in race 11 was made by Luckhurst and Stevens, whom Teo couldn't split, made the score 33 all. Two 5-1 wins in the following two heats put the Hammers well and truly in the lead by 8 points, and points were shared in the final race making the Robins the losers by 8 points.

WIMBLEDON                    43.0                    41.0                    WEST HAM DATE:                    20/04/1964

RESULT:                    HOME WIN                    AGREGATE SCORE                   

What a fantastic meeting! Never before have I witnessed anything to match this one for incident and achievement. Take a note of these features and, perhaps, you will see what I mean:
a) West Ham reserve Bobby Dugard created speedway history when he rode in four consecutive heats; the first rider to do so in competitive speedway. If they handed out medals for willingness and spirit this talented 21-year-old would deserve a crate full.
b) It rained so hard and consistently that it always appeared improbable that the meeting would reach its climax.
c) It did, and what a climax. Both teams had 39 points after heat 13 and it was only a 4-2 by Wimbledon in the last heat that brought them victory.
d) Three West Ham riders withdrew during the meeting and left their team virtually crippled. In one race, heat 12, West Ham fielded one rider; it was Dugard of course.
e) Gote Nordin, with his machine showing a marked improvement in speed even on this waterlogged track, sped to a somewhat wet maximum. Gerry Jackson was accredited with a paid maximum.
F) West Ham led by six points when only three heats remained. If only all their riders had Dugard's dedication. It was a great pity that there were not a few more spectators to view this fantastic meeting.

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION EASTER CHALLENGE CUP

WEST HAM 40.0 44.0 NORWICH DATE: 21/04/1964

RESULT: AWAY WIN AGREGATE SCORE

So it ended. Bjorn Knutsson, winner of his twelve rides at West Ham's first two meetings, was beaten fair and square in his challenge for the British Match Race Championship. Holder Ove Fundin, taking his first look at the West Ham track for 11 years, made the gate in both races and left Knutsson trailing.

It was the shape of things to come for the Hammers who played to a 15,000 audience for the third successive week. Knutsson's machine did not seem to have any pep in it and I learned from the West Ham camp that most of the bikes were still affected from the battering they took at Monday's wet Wimbledon meeting.

Norwich seemed able to pull it when it counted and nobody knew better than Fundin. In both his Easter Challenge Cup heats against skipper Knutsson he broke through to win in great style and yet in his other rides he finished third to Norman Hunter and Alf Hagon.

With Olle Nygren showing again that on current form he is as good as any of the Swedes, Norwich had the edge from the time they took the lead in heat 7. It wasn't surprising that Hammers booked in Olle to guest for them in their meeting this week.

For Hammers it was Knutsson, his five rides brought him 11 points, Alf Hagon, paid for 11, and Ray Cresp paid for 10. But they could have won but for those off-colour machines.

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION BRITANNIA SHIELD

WEST HAM 44.0 40.0 COVENTRY DATE: 28/04/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

The Red River of slush that acted as West Ham speedway circuit won and lost this Britannia Shield clash. And it was the title-hunting Coventry Bees who took the knocks.
 It was reasonable to suppose that Coventry had enough in store to win the last two heats and clinch the match. Come Heat 13 with the score at 36-a piece and Bees manager Bob Mark slips in Bryan Elliott for Jack Biggs. The partnership with Nigel Boocock looks good enough for a heat win until Booy leapfrogs over his handlebars on the puddle-strewn pits bend. Chirpy Elliott made the most of those ten yards to win but Hammers shared the spoils and the first big chance had slipped from Coventry;s grasp.
 Even in Heat 14, when Hammers had Knutsson and Cresp, Coventry looked set for at least a share of the spoils. They had Ken Mckinlay, a three-times winner already. Ken stalled at the gate, partner Les Owen tasted the shale in exactly the same spot as Boocock and Knutsson and Cresp went home to a comfortable win with Mckinlay over half a lap behind.
 It was a night for the gaters and Coventry supplied nine of the fourteen heat winners simply because they made the traps first, but fighting Hammers stuck to their task and never let the Bees build up too big a lead.

VENUE COWLEY COMPETITION BRITANNIA SHIELD

OXFORD 54.0 30.0 WEST HAM DATE: 30/04/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Not even the surprise inclusion of Coventry's star Ken McKinlay, could save West Ham from a hiding by the Cheetahs at Oxford on Thursday. West Ham won only one heat, the tenth and shared the points in only four others, thanks to the one man opposition from Bjorn Knutsson who won three of his four races.

When he should have had the fifth he found himself left behind at the starting gate, This was in the re-run of Heat 13. Arne Pander slid into the fence as Knutsson came through but the Dane was able to ride on a borrowed machine,

Reg Luckhurst took a nasty tumble in Heat 11 when his machine reared at the start and then fell on top of him-but he soon recovered consciousness and suffered nothing worse than a severe shaking. Pander was later troubled with a pulled knee muscle.

Encouraging not for Oxford was Ron How's form-his best at Cowley this year. He and Jimmy Gooch both had three wins and were paid for 11 points, and so too was Pander. Genz was paid for ten.

This is the best evidence of Oxford's newly-gained all-round team strength. How often have they had four riders paid for double figures?

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION BRITANNIA SHIELD

WEST HAM 39.0 45.0 BELLE VUE DATE: 05/05/1964

RESULT: AWAY WIN AGREGATE SCORE

I wonder just how long the patient fans of East London will tolerate it. It's not so much that West Ham were beaten but it's the way they were beaten.

West Ham, the team with ONE heat leader of their own, are still raking in 12,000 crowds but before long the Docklanders are going to start wondering when Hammers are going to get other heat leaders they have been after all season.

Fortunately the racing in this Britannia Shield clash with Belle Vue was as good as you are likely to see anywhere with the Aces clinching victory with a 5-1 and a 4-2 in the last two heats. But West Ham are having to rely too much on Bjorn Knutsson, on a guest rider, in this instance Olle Nygren, a batch of good second strings who are not quite in the heat leader class and a whole lot of team spirit.

That wasn't enough to curb Belle Vue who has Soren Sjosten living up to that "Jet" nickname, Gordon McGregor, Cyril Maidment and surprise packet Jim Yacoby, all well among the points.

COVENTRY 50.0 34.0 WEST HAM DATE: 09/05/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Revenge is sweet, Doubly so for Coventry after that unfortunate affair at West Ham the previous week when the Hammers won on a rain-soaked track all against the odds. Mind you, the London team didn't give in without a struggle. They fought hard all the way, and once Norman Hunter hits top form, the Hammers are going to be a tough nut to crack. Skipper Jim Lightfoot was in great form for the Bees and dropped his only point to the visitors' outstanding rider, Bjorn Knutsson. This was one of the best races of a splendid night's racing, with Lightfoot pressing hard all the way. Once again it was the Bees' all-round strength which impressed. There wasn't a weak link in the side.

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION BRITANNIA SHIELD

WEST HAM 42.0 42.0 OXFORD DATE: 12/05/1964

RESULT: DRAW AGREGATE SCORE

For once the spotlight was taken off Bjorn Knutsson. Instead it shone brightly on his partner Stan Stevens. It was the climax to another big night of speedway at West Ham. The tense last heat of this Britannia Shield match with Oxford nosing ahead by two points. Skipper Knutsson was in the lead by the end of the first lap. It depended now on Stevens. He made a despairing bid to take Ron How for second place, went so wide that it looked as if John Bishop would come up to him, regained his composure and got Hammers the point to make it a draw. If there's one thing about these Custom House meetings it's the fact the scores always seem to be close. There was never more than two points between the teams with the lead swapping hands crazily. Hammers had Knutsson in unbeatable mood and guest Sverre Harrfeldt was nearly as good. They had Alf Hagon, who looked mighty pleased to be back on a dry track. The Cheetahs, with guest Barry Briggs getting 9, were typically solid. There was hardly a chink in their armour.

Quite like old times at Hyde Road on Saturday. The old glamour of West Ham and Tommy Price at the helm. Brilliant sunshine and a match worthy of the day.

Belle Vue's more balanced line-up won out but Bjorn Knutsson and the Hammer's tail enders nearly provided a shock result. Knutsson, Reg Luckhurst and Ray Cresp served up the race wins. Belle Vue did not get a man in front until Heat 4 and the Hammers shared points in 9 races but while reserves Hunter and Hagon gave solid support the second strings failed miserably when needed. Knutsson was in devastating form. Belle Vue took up his challenge and guest Colin Goody fought a glorious tow laps with the Swede before being outpaced.

Reserve Jim Yacoby streaked for home to win as Knutsson put everything into thrilling power dives in an effort to beat his handicap but was nothing compared to the excitement of Soren Sjosten's clash with his more famous countryman in Heat 13. the stadium exploded as the Jet was passed and then fought back to repass Knutsson again and again until Sjosten actually pulled away from Knutsson on the final bend. West Ham were twelve points behind at Heat 12 but with an intelligent use of their reserves were able to hold Belle Vue to this and in fact, cut the Belle Vue lead by four points by the introduction of Alf Hagon in the last race.

COMPETITION EMBASSY BEST PAIRS

18/05/1964 PLOUGH LANE

World Champion Ove Fundin and his Norwich team-mate Olle Nygren won the "Embassy" Best Pairs Trophy with 21 points. Bjorn Knutsson (West Ham) and Leo McAuliffe (Wimbledon) finished second with Barry Briggs (Swindon) and Bob Andrews (Wimbledon) third. The most disappointing feature of an otherwise entertaining evening's racing was the mechanical failure of Gote Nordin's machine. He suffered engine failure in each of his opening four rides. He borrowed a bike for his final outing and took second place. His partner Sverre Harrfeldt rode well, apart from one race in which he fell, and this duo could have potted the trophy but for Nordin's machine jinx.

Fundin was simply magnificent and won each of his five rides. He was ably backed by Nygren and this pair secured a decisive 5-1 in Heat 8. With Fundin, the individual honours went to Knutsson (13 points), Briggs (12) and How (12) whilst the Coventry pair displayed some splendid team riding but had to be content with second and third placings in three heats.

Wimbledon's Gerry Jackson substituted for Ronnie Genz in Heat 14.

WEST HAM 41.0 42.0 WIMBLEDON DATE: 19/05/1964

RESULT: AWAY WIN AGREGATE SCORE

The throaty roar of 10,000 excited East-enders ended abruptly. Stan Stevens had fallen off in the dramatic and match-deciding final heat of the Britannia Shield clash with London neighbours Wimbledon.

Hammers needed a 4-2 to hoist the victory flag over Custom House and looked all set to get it when Knutsson burst through to take the lead and Stevens led Leo McAuliffe and Gerry Jackson. Then on the last bend of the second lap Stevens hit the deck on a slick patch that had been worrying riders all night and the Dons were safely home to a one point win.

On a very wet track conditions were difficult for the riders and spills were plentiful. Reg Luckhurst came off three times and guest rider Nigel Boocock fell twice and damaged his own machine and the track spare in the process.

Yet the most vital heat of all was the first when Gote Nordin and Bob Andrews kept Hammers' Bjorn Knutsson in third place.

What looked like being a complete walk-over for Swindon, turned out to be a very exciting contest towards the latter stages of the match. From the beginning the Robins piled up the points, so much so that after Heat 11 they were 10 points in the lead and victory seemed almost certain. There were now three races to go so the Hammers, if they wanted to win, must go all out, and that they certainly did. Knutsson came out again in Heat 13 which he won, but Alf Hagon was unable to catch the flying Mike Broadbank who came second. One race to go and the Robins now only 4 points ahead. The Hammers couldn't win, but with a 5-1 could they make a draw? Heat 14 and what a race! After a lap Briggs, Ashby, Cresp and Dugard were nearly level and all four were neck and neck. Cresp had the speed but went wide, and the same happened to Dugard and out of a cloud of dust emerged Briggs in the lead with Ashby second and Cresp third, and in this order they crossed the line giving Swindon a 5-1 win that the Hammers so badly needed to make it a draw.

This was another meeting to remember . . . And the second half racing was as exciting as that in the Britannia Shield match. Had Swindon been a bit more consistent they might have troubled West Ham, for whom Bjorn Knutsson smashed the track record and guest Sverre Harrfeldt equalled the old figure and then beat it himself.

But if nothing else, the Robins owned a side of great triers and Barry Briggs was their most disappointing performer. From Mike Broadbank to wee Bob Kilby they fought every inch.

In the second half unpredictable Briggs atoned for his earlier display with a courageous fight for supremacy against his old Southampton oppo Knutsson in a special challenge match race. Although Knutsson won 2-0, the victory margin could not have been more than a hair's breadth each time. It was scintillating stuff and when Briggs just managed to pip the Hammers' skipper in the final of the second half Bobbing Robins Scurry, not one of the large and sporting home crowd begrudged him this success.

Norwich had no difficulty in beating the weak West Ham team by 58-26 in this Britannia Shield match. It was a poor match, for although Knutsson was always in the thick of things the Hammers had no real answer to the riding of Bales, Hedge, Nygren and Fundin.

Bales was immaculate once again. He scored another maximum and found his way through the opposition with skill and ease. Trevor Hedge was also on top form and gained his first "National" paid maximum. Partnered with Fundin he looked very good, particularly when holding off Knutsson in Heat 12. Nygren too, looked good for the "max" but was well beaten by Luckhurst in his final ride.

Reg Luckhurst scored both of West Ham's only heat wins and the first win was the only time a noise was heard by the crowd. After being baulked, bewildered and blinded by the exuberant Levai (he was a shaky second in his first ride), Luckhurst went under him on the first bend of the last lap a bit faster than normal and Levai lost complete control and hit the fence. He appeared rather upset but without injury.

Luckhurst after this was the most hated man in the Stadium and was cautioned by the A.C.U referee. Why, I can't imagine; his tactics were perfectly clean and Levai, though he tries hard is a very, very unsteady rider.

VENUE COWLEY COMPETITION LEAGUE

OXFORD 50.0 34.0 WEST HAM DATE: 04/06/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Even with the help of World Champion Ove Fundin, West Ham were no match for Oxford when they open their National League programme on Thursday.

The ten-yard handicap was too much of an obstacle for both Fundin and Bjorn Knutsson, neither of whom won a heat. But they often pushed the Oxford riders hard and provided most of the real interest.

Olle Nygren, again substituting for Ronnie Genz scored a maximum. Ron How was also unbeaten by a visiting rider and was paid for a dozen. He dropped his only point to help Nygren.

Cheetah's skipper Jack Geran, after two good efforts looked set for a maximum but was surprised by Reg Luckhurst, the only West Ham rider to win a race, in his third ride.

The one disappointing note was the poor form of Arne Pander. When Pander is beaten by the likes of Ray Cresp and Alf Hagon, something is obviously wrong with the Dane who seems to have lost his confidence.

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION NATIONAL TROPHY 1st ROUND 1st LEG

WEST HAM 45.0 39.0 COVENTRY DATE: 09/06/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

A bitter blow to Coventry's National League and National Trophy hopes. Ron Mountford was taken to hospital after a nasty-looking tumble in the scratch race final.

His chain locked and Mountford was thrown over the handlebars. He was believed to have injured his ribs, an arm and a leg.

The injury could have put the cat among the pigeons when the sides fought the second leg of this National Trophy for without Mountford, Bees had only an even chance of wiping out Hammers' six-point lead gained in the first leg.

For their victory West Ham had to thank Bjorn Knutsson, another superb maximum, and guest rider Soren Sjosten. And what a burn-up when these two Swedes met in Heat 6. It seemed as if they had forgotten they were on the same side.

But the decisive factor was the disappointing form of Jim Lightfoot and Les Owen for Coventry and the improved showing of Reg Luckhurst and Norman Hunter for Hammers.

VENUE BRANDON COMPETITION NATIONAL TROPHY 1st ROUND 2nd LEG

COVENTRY 43.0 41.0 WEST HAM DATE: 13/06/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE 82.0 86.0

A terrific National Trophy second leg boiled up to a last heat climax when the Bees needed a 5-1 win to level the aggregate scores. It was here that Hammers' team manager, Tommy Price, produced his master stroke by substituting reserve Bobby Dugard for Stan Stevens. It wasn't that Dugard had done anything particularly startling: far from it . . . But Tommy Price was after that 10 yards start to prevent the Coventry pair getting together at the first turn.

It worked like a charm. Nigel Boocock soon got through but Rick France struck the fence in a desperate attempt to follow his partner, and West Ham were home.

One could commiserate with Coventry. It just wasn't their night. Without Ron Mountford, they struck further trouble when Jim Lightfoot twice encountered engine trouble. Lightfoot's mishaps were sufficient to give the Hammers an early lead and the scent of victory. They fought like tigers to retain that lead and it was not till the tenth heat that Coventry finally edged in front.

A draw would, I think, have been a very fair result, for Coventry could take pride in the performance of their two young reserves, Rick France and second-half Col Cottrell, but they had no one to match the peerless Bjorn Knutsson. On this form Knutsson looked what he may well be- the best rider in the world.

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION LEAGUE

WEST HAM 39.0 44.0 OXFORD DATE: 16/06/1964

RESULT: AWAY WIN AGREGATE SCORE

West Ham. It seems, have backed a winner, Bengt Jansson, the 21-year-old Swedish newcomer to the Custom House outfit, made a highly satisfactory debut in the National League.

Yet he was really thrown in at the deep end of British Speedway. They don't come much harder to beat than Oxford, whose tremendous overall strength gave them victory. Jansson's 7 points (paid 8), were all taken from the back. An encouraging performance as he was riding the track spare and had only a couple of practice spins before the gates were open.

Jansson apart, the main interest of the evening centred on the tremendous clashes between Bjorn Knutsson and Ron How. Three times in the match How, looking a World class rider every inch of the way, kept out Knutsson challenges. He did it again in the first heat of the scratch races and then in a match race between the two and the final of the scratch races Bjorn got his revenge after heart-pounding passing and re-passing affairs.

Praise too for Alf Hagon's paid maximum from the reserve slot. Shrewd moves by Tommy Price but not enough to counter the solidity of Oxford.

VENUE HYDE ROAD COMPETITION LEAGUE

BELLE VUE 47.0 37.0 WEST HAM DATE: 20/06/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Big mystery of this match was Tommy Price's reluctance to use tactical substitutes after Heat 8 when West Ham were six points down. Smart use of Bjorn Knutsson, Ray Cresp and Bengt Jansson might have pulled the teams level but the expected changes never came. Alf Hagon was pegged back with machine failures, Reg Luckhurst and reserve Bob Dugard right out of touch, but for all that took their full quota of rides.

Belle Vue piled on another couple of heat wins to push their lead to 10 points and won the match.

West Ham shared points in the opening race when Knutsson out-paced local skipper Dick Fisher and went ahead through the teamwork of Norman Hunter and newcomer Bengt Jansson in the next race. But this was the only time the visitors held a lead for Jim Yacoby and Norman Nevitt put Belle Vue level at Heat 4 and two good race wins from Gordon McGregor gave the Aces a six-point advantage at the halfway stage.

McGregor was beaten after a poor start in his first race but made no mistakes after that. His race wins included two exciting duels with Bjorn Knutsson which had suspense right up to the line.

Jet Sjosten collected another maximum with most opposition coming- as might be expected- from countryman Knutsson in Heat 13. Just to prove his race win no flash in the pan, Sjosten outraced Knutsson again in a scratch race eliminator. He later won the final after a close race with now very much on form Gordon McGregor.

West Ham gave every reason to be pleased with their stylish Swede Bengt Jansson. No less pleased with a workmanlike performance from Norman Hunter whose 8 points were a best-ever for the London rider on the Belle Vue track.

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

West Ham's first National League success of the season, their highest score this year and a first win over Wimbledon. All jolly good stuff for the home fans but I can't help wondering about one or two points.

I don't know whether Dons' team manager Ted Brine had reason for not using Nordin and possibly Andrews or Harrfeldt as tactical substitutes during the evening. It wouldn't have stopped Hammers winning but it would have made the score a darn sight closer.

And I reckon it was worth a gamble to put the flying Nordin-a fine maximum from the Swede- as number one in order that he could have two cracks at West Ham skipper Knutsson. As it was the pair didn't meet until the last heat when Gote never looked like yielding the 10-yard start he received and West Ham were certain of victory anyway.

Had Nordin been Dons' number one he would have been out against Knutsson in Heat 1 and 6 and as it was Hammers got maximums from both.

All very well to be wise after the event I know, particularly as West Ham scored all the way down the order with Cresp and Hunter lending valuable support to captain Knutte.

RESULT:  AGREGATE SCORE

This was a revenge match true to the finest traditions. Wimbledon were determined to avenge a hammering received from West Ham last week.

The Dons succeeded by an eight point margin but in certain respects West Ham were slightly unlucky. However, this local derby was splendid entertainment with fast racing and plenty of thrills from both sides.

West Ham skipper Bjorn Knutsson kept his side in with a chance though by means of some magnificent riding. He beat Gote Nordin and, believe me, that takes some doing these days.

If Knutsson could have team rode Bobby Dugard home in Heat 12; and had Reg Luckhurst's engine not failed in Heat 5 when he was leading, the score might have been different.

Nevertheless it was a solid performance from Wimbledon and one that must have given Ronnie Greene some satisfaction. It was nice to see Leo McAuliffe back to something like his old form. Once he is in front, Leo is a difficult man to pass.

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION BRITANNIA SHIELD

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

When Trevor Hedge and Billy Bales both developed engine troubles during this Britannia Shield clash with West Ham, Norwich team boss Gordon Parkins had no alternative but to give extra rides to his reserves. It very nearly won him the match.

For Tich Read and Sandor Levai, both off the front gate and two of the National League's most capable reserves, netted a cool 13 points between them and came within an ace of upsetting the Hammers on their own shale.

The fact that they didn't must be because Bjorn Knutsson mastered fellow countryman Ove Fundin twice and superbly team rode with Alf Hagon in the final heat for a match-winning 5-1.

Reg Luckhurst, Bengt Jansson and the new tigerish Norman Hunter gave skipper Knutsson grand support while for Norwich it was Fundin and Nygren who took the honours.

Knutsson broke the Custom House track record in the first heat with a time of 74 secs.

WEST HAM 38.0 45.0 BELLE VUE DATE: 07/07/1964

RESULT: AWAY WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Call this Custom House disaster night. Bad enough that West Ham were beaten in front of a larger-than-average crowd but I wonder what impression the meeting left in the minds of the many casual spectators and the Russian tourists. It began in Heat 1 when the tapes were broken. In the re-run the race was started with Knutsson still a good two yards back from his gate. Knutte just got off his bike and left it in the middle of the track. I sympathise with Knutsson for the misfortune but I'm afraid there is no sympathy for the way he left his machine on the track and then attempted to line-up for the third re-run. Then the tapes packed up all together and for a half a dozen heats we had starts on the green light. To complete West Ham's misery Dugard's machine packed up in Heat 12 to give Belle Vue match winning points. It's a win for Belle Vue, however, that maintains interest in the National League and puts them level pegging with Oxford at the top.

EMBASSY BEST PAIRS

CUSTOM HOUSE

It's enough to make you weep. A World Final without Gote Nordin will be like a soccer World Cup without Brazil. The bloke responsible for losing Gote's bike in Warsaw prior to the European Final and so depriving him of a World Final place, should be locked up. If you were at West Ham for this Embassy Best Pairs meeting, you can't help but agree. On current form Nordin must be in the top three riders performing in Britain and in the World's top five. Give him a couple of months and I reckon he will be as good as anyone. The effortless style gives a false impression of Nordin. He went under Ron How in one race and on How's form at present that takes some doing. He collected 14 points, the loin's share of the winning total he chalked up with Wimbledon colleague Sverre Harrfeldt, and he avenged his only defeat of the evening by beating Bjorn Knutsson in the Embassy Big Four Final. But as so often happens in these Best Pairs events, the ultimate result depends too much on one rider and not enough on a pairing. Only Swindon's Barry Briggs and Brian Brett really gave us team riding with four bonus points in their five rides. For the rest it was mostly individual efforts with Norman Hunter's last ditch win over Brian Brett in Heat 5 and Bengt Jansson's great but unsuccessful effort to beat the same young Robin in Heat 13 as two of the better moments.

EMBASSY 4 TEAM TOURNAMENT THE FIRS

Norwich, scheduled to present their Embassy Best Pairs Tournament, changed the formula and instead staged an Embassy Sponsored Four-Team Tournament with representations from Norwich, Swindon, Wimbledon and West Ham. The home quartet - with a maximu from Ove Fundin - proved to have the edge - but not without a tremendous battle from Swindon. Robins' star men, Barry Briggs and Brian Brett, scored 11 points each and with Teodorowicz notching 8, the Swindon four finished only one point in arrears. The two London tracks were forced to call on guest riders and for most part they took the back seats. Speedway Star

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION CHALLENGE

WEST HAM 36.0 42.0 VARGARNA DATE: 28/07/1964

RESULT: AWAY WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Charity begins at home but apparently West Ham don't realise that. When Swedish tourists Vargarna turn up with Runo Wedin out with a finger injury, the Hammers sportingly lent them Bengt Jansson. Now this is all very noble and creditable but I can't help wondering how long those Hammers' fans will tolerate seeing their favourites go down at home. Thankfully skipper Bjorn Knutsson, and let's face it, half the Hammers' fans come to watch him, weaved his way to another impeccable maximum, with a track record breaking run in his first ride. It was Vargarna's second victory of their tour but their hour of glory was marred by a fractured leg to 1963 World Finalist Arne Carlsson. In miraculously avoiding the fallen Stan Stevens, Arne fell awkwardly and was carted away to hospital. That was Heat 5 and strangely it was the re-run that turned the scores in Vargarna's favour for the first time. Manager Charles Ringblom slipped in Lars Jansson and they scored a 5-1. And while West Ham seemed content to ignore the tactical substitute rule, the Swedes consolidated their winning position.

COMPETITION: WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

2nd ROUND

A track record for Barry Briggs. A British Final place for Jim Lightfoot, with Wembley reserve spots for Colin Gooddy and Ronnie Genz. There you have the sum total of entertainment at Custom House for the last of the World Championship second round meetins. Briggs, following up his Internationale success, went through the meeting unbeaten and not even his clash with the previously unbeaten Brian Brett in Heat 18 lived up to its expectations. With 15 of the 16 Wembley places virtually settled before the meeting it left four men, Lightfoot, Gooddy, Genz and McAuliffe, fighting for the one remaining riding position and the two reserve slots. Lightfoot did it easily enough with 12 points and so became the fifth Coventry rider to reach Wembley. Busiest men of the night were reserve John Holder and Stan Stevens who had 13 rides between them in place of the absent Roy Bowers and Jack Geran and Jim Tebby, who pulled out with motor troubles after two rides. VENUE BRANDON COMPETITION LEAGUE

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Coventry had a more comfortable win over West Ham than a 45-39 score line would indicate. In a match which, in some curious way, never came to life, the Bees always seemed to have the upper hand-even when two 5-1 wins by the Knutsson-Hagon pairing put the Hammers back in the fight.

Yet, had Ray Cresp ridden with even half the dash and verve he has displayed on previous visits to Brandon this season, then the London team must have won. As it was, there were too many weak links in West Ham's line-up for them to match a Coventry team notably solid even if not at their best.

Nigel Boocock was the chief architect of the Bees' win with a faultless maximum. Even the redoubtable Knutsson failed to trouble him on the two occasions when they clashed.

A dusty track without a good deal of grip (a showery day doubtless made track preparation difficult) put a premium on exciting racing and, in fact, my programme notes showed not one outstanding race all through.

Spiky-Haired Gerry Jackson earned Wimbledon a 10-point first leg advantage over West Ham in the London Cup. Nothing from his first ride, nine from his next three and a second victory over Bjorn Knutsson in the second half made this Jackson's night. His sudden return to form gave Dons their handsome lead- a lead which may prove just too much for the Hammers when the return is fought at Custom House on August 25.

Praise, too, for Hammers' young Swede, Bengt Jansson, who gained double figures for the first time since his arrival in this country. Reason? Bengt was on a new machine and he really flew.

Gote Nordin was forced into last place in his first ride with motor trouble while Knutsson with a new motor and new tyre, was wishing he hadn't bothered to make the changes.

Finally a word about india-rubber man Ray Cresp who for the second successive Monday tore great holes in the Dons' safety fence and escaped unscathed. A lucky man is Ray.

WEST HAM 43.0 41.0 SWINDON DATE: 11/08/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Barry Briggs, holding back his threatened retirement for a few days, used the quickest way to repair a bike at West Ham in this National League. Briggo blew his clutch at the start of Heat 1 and hustled round in a new track record, 72.6 seconds. Certainly got him back to the pits in time to make a few quick changes!

A night of mechanical troubles for the Robins but they kept up their record of being one of the most attractive outfits in the country by providing some great racing.

Briggs blew a valve in his next ride and Martin Ashby blew his motor completely.

But the racing remained close and as soon as Swindon fell six points behind they whipped in Barry Briggs to keep within striking distance. Mike Broadbank slipped almost unobtrusively to a maximum though there wasn't much unobtrusive about his thrilling last heat win over Knutsson.

More encouraging form from Hammers Bengt Jansson and one feels confident that he can go to the top once he gets out of the gate better.

All his points at the moment are being obtained from the back.

West Ham had Ronnie Genz guesting for the injured Ray Cresp.

The Hammers' proposed National League match with Norwich was postponed because of the state of the track. Heavy rain all day had made the circuit unsafe for riding.

Also postponed was the Match Race Championship decider between Ove Fundin and Ron How. The match with Norwich and the Fundin-How clash were put back for a week to August 25 when Hammers were due to have staged the second leg of their London Cup meeting with Wimbledon.

This will now be held on a future open date at Custom House.

Originally scheduled as a Challenge Match this West Ham v. Swindon affair was turned into a National League match when it was learned that Barry Briggs could ride before he flew off to skipper the U.K. in the World Team Cup. Briggo celebrated his "escape" from the back mark with a superb maximum. Also on the maximum mark, for the first time this season, was Tadeusz Teodorowicz.

However Hammers couldn't obtain the release of Bjorn Knutsson who was riding for Sweden in the World Cup. Instead it was Hammers' other Swede, Bengt Jansson, who got among the points again.

This boy is really settling down to National League life now and scored 12 points from 5 rides - his best performance since his arrival from Sweden.

But apart from Alf Hagon he didn't receive much backing and Hammers slumped to a heavy defeat against a Robins' side that was deep in strepitude - despite the absence of Brian Brett

Ove Fundin finished? Don't make me laugh. Nine races, nine wins . . . That's all the evidence that is needed to show that Mr F. is as good as anyone.
 Ask Ron How who fought out the decider of the British Match Race Championship with Ove. The Champ won the first heat comfortably, was beaten out of the traps in the second, but came roaring round the outside of Ron on the second lap to ensure that his name goes on the trophy for the 17th time.
 Ask West Ham skipper Bjorn Knutsson, who was beaten twice in the following National League match and again in the Scratch Race Final. With the Golden Helmet prestige at stake and abolition of the handicapping rule Ove is back at the top - and Gothenberg, significantly I feel, is only a week away.
 Despite the brilliance of Fundin and some pretty nifty team juggling from Gordon Parkins, Norwich went down by eight points. Parkins brought Fundin, Olle Nygren and Trevor Hedge in for extra rides and put out babe David Crane to use his front gate advantage to the full and keep interest alive.
 What, then, was the reason for Hammers' clear-cut win? The form of Reg Luckhurst, really flying this time and an unfortunate crash to Hedge. Yes Trev walloped the safety fence again when he and Fundin looked set for a 5-1 in Heat 9. He escaped with slight concussion but Norwich's chances of winning stopped there and then.

This meeting had enough incident to satisfy everyone - except Swindon. The unlucky Robins are probably out of the National Trophy by now but who can blame them for being a little bit sore.

They were refused permission to ride John Debbage, he had appeared for Norwich in the National Trophy but also aided the Robins in their first round match with Wimbledon. Instead Swindon gave extra rides to reserves Bob Kilby and Roy Bowers.

Then Swindon wanted Knutsson excluded from a first heat re-run. Knutsson rode and beat Briggs in the process but how about their second clash in Heat 6. Briggs, forced out to the fence by Knutsson on the first bend, made up all of 40 yards to pass Jansson and then the West Ham skipper in one of the greatest bits of riding I've ever seen all season.

But West Ham using Ray Cresp at reserve with a 10-yard start just piled up the points and the Robins last moment of disaster came in Heat 12 when Teo over slid coming out of the last bend, hit the fence and was rushed to hospital where it was feared he had sustained a fractured skull Injury-hit Swindon had troubles enough before the second-leg of their National Trophy semi-final against West Ham. Trailing by 18 points, and without Teo Teodorowicz, they booked in Wimbledon's Sverre Harrfeldt to prop up their sagging strength. But Harrfeldt didn't turn up, so Roy Bowers came into the team and Mike Keen rode at number eight. In the circumstances, therefore, it was not surprising that the eager Hammers should stroll through to the final. They scored solidly and Bengt Jansson again showed his liking for Blunsdon with eight points, excitingly gathered. Skipper Bjorn Knutsson and Ray Cresp - off the front gate again - also did well. Swindon just won this leg, but despite the power of Barry Briggs and non-stop effort of Mike Broadbank, they never looked like reducing the arrears to any significant proportions. In Heat 14 young Bob Kilby crashed and the race was halted. With the inclement weather conditions in mind, A.C.U. referee Mr.P.G.Ryall, awarded points to riders as they had been placed at the time of the stoppage.

Lucky, lucky Bryan Elliott. He crashed at full throttle into the West Ham safety fence, hit the ground with such force that his crash helmet came off and was narrowly missed by three riders bearing down behind him. First reports said that Elliott had broken his right leg. We breathed a sigh of relief that it wasn't worse. Five minutes later "Chirpy" was strolling around the pits with nothing worse than a grazed shin. His escape was nothing short of miraculous but on doctor's advice he did not ride again. Coventry had built up a six point lead by Heat 7 and the Hammers didn't provide their first heat winner until Heat 8 when Jansson and Hunter got maximum spoils after Boocock's machine had failed. Hammers picked up nine points from the next two heats to move into a four point lead and after that they never lost the initiative. A fighting performance from the Cockney-boys which ended their National League home fixtures on a highly satisfactory note.

VENUE THE FIRS COMPETITION LEAGUE

NORWICH 45.0 39.0 WEST HAM DATE: 09/09/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

With Ove Fundin and Bjorn Knutsson recalled to Sweden in preparation for the World Final, the meeting lost some of its glamour. The incomparable Barry Briggs, however, deputised for Knutsson in the West Ham team and was in a masterly mood and he sped to a flawless maximum.

But apart from Reg Luckhurst the rest of the Hammers' team was somewhat disappointing. Norwich, with some solid scoring, gained a well-deserved victory.

Particularly encouraging for Norwich was the performance of Tich Read who rode very well to score 8 points. Brian Brett was used as a guest and collected a valuable 7 points. With Olle Nygren also in fine form, Norwich picked up two welcome points.

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION CHALLENGE

WEST HAM 46.0 38.0 THE MIDLANDS DATE: 15/09/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

West Ham's young Swede Bengt Jansson must have wondered what he had done to deserve it. Three times in this Challenge Match he was matched against the Midlands top two, Barry Briggs and Nigel Boocock, as visitors' team manager Bryan Seery tried to cut down the Hammers' lead by using tactical substitutes.

Give Jansson the credit for facing up to a near impossible task and giving World Champ Briggs his hardest race of the night. That was in their second clash. He led for almost tow laps and even when he was passed he didn't give up the ghost.

What more can be said of Briggs that hasn't already been said in the last six weeks? Nobody, apart form that one Jansson ride, got near him. He won the rest of his races by anything up to half a lap. He was obviously intent on showing the West Ham fans why he became World Champion.

But it was a weak Midlands team he led. Only Boocock, an other five ride man, got any points.

VENUE BRANDON COMPETITION CHALLENGE

COVENTRY 56.0 28.0 WEST HAM DATE: 19/09/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE

Hard though they tried, West Ham were simply no match for a Bees team right in top gear. Jim Lightfoot chalked up a faultless maximum, and Ron Mountford dropped his only point to Bjorn Knutsson (the only visitor to offer any real opposition) in Heat 13. If Nigel Boocock and Ken McKinlay had been as devastating as usual at Brandon, then one fears to think what might have happened to the London team. The Bees started off by splitting the opening heat with the flying Knutsson, but after maximum wins in the tow following heats there was no holding them. Not till that Knutsson win over Mountford in the penultimate heat were the Hammers destined to supply another heat winner. Despite the score, the racing was not short of incident. This was simply a case of Coventry riding right up to their paper strength.

WEST HAM      52.0      32.0      OXFORD      DATE: 22/09/1964

So this was a Cup Final. You could have fooled me. Maybe East Londoners are becoming blasé about their favourites' Cup performances for there certainly wasn't much Cup atmosphere around on this night. I can't for the life of me understand why. The Hammers romped home to a 20-point first leg win - just what promoter Tommy Price wanted in fact. It was their biggest victory of the season and the racing was as good as any we have seen at West Ham all season. Perhaps the reason for that was a heavily watered track which had most of the riders complaining bitterly. But at least it gave rise to more passing and re-passing than the average meeting. Surprise packet of the night was Hammers' reserve Stan Stevens. West Ham used him in the last two races to try and increase their already handsome lead. It worked and Stan finished the evening only one short of a maiden National League maximum. Bjorn Knutsson, Bengt Jansson, Reg Luckhurst and Ray Cresp really spiked those Oxford big guns and still the crowd hardly murmured. For Oxford Ron How and Jimmy Gooch formed a successful partnership and had the distinction of being the only Cheetahs to win heats and then linking up in Heat 13 to provide their only heat success of the night. Rye House discovery Ted Ede was pushed into the Cheetah's team when Jack Geran didn't show up. That weakened Oxford no doubt. Now I wonder what the S.R.A will say about Mr Geran for failing to honour an engagement. But, of course, he's not one of those "wicked" foreigners.

VENUE COWLEY COMPETITION NATIONAL TROPHY FINAL 2nd LEG

OXFORD 53.0 31.0 WEST HAM DATE: 24/09/1964

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE 85.0 83.0

Jack Geran ended the shortest retirement - it started last Tuesday and ended the following day - when Oxford's promotor, Rodney Rycroft, pleaded to the Cheetah's skipper to come back.
 Jack came back with a bang and led the Cheetahs to victory in the second leg of the final of the National Trophy.
 He rode like a demon - or more precisely, like a man with a conscience. Jack did not think he would be missed so much at West Ham where the Cheetahs lost the first leg by 20 points.
 Why did he come back? His explanation was: "I decided to give it one more go for the sake of the fans. I did not want the feeling that I helped to lose the National Trophy."
 Jack and the rest of the lads rode their hearts out and so the team with the worst record in the competition won the trophy for the first time and completed the triple. Already they had made sure of the Britannia Shield and the week before they clinched the National League championship.
 Never before had the Cheetahs reached the Trophy Final. Never before had they won the Shield of the League title. And now the Cheetahs have become the first team to collect all three trophies in the same season.
 Luckily for the home fans, the Cheetahs were at full strength. The Control Board had the previous day taken a lenient view of Ronnie Genz's "misdemeanours" - his absence from the British Final at Wembley and his appearance, under a nom-de-plume, on Exeter's black-listed track. Genno had a £5 fine to pay and finished up as the Cheetahs' top money earner, scoring 8 points and gaining three bonus points.
 Oly a broken chain stopped Geran, smiling again, from getting a paid maximum. His two wins, when partnered by Arne Pander, were the turning point. After seven heats Oxford were still ten points down on aggregate and then Geran and Pander went out to do battle with Bjorn Knutsson.
 Knutty scorched round to win the opening heat from Ron How by 40 yards and looked capable of winning the Trophy for the Hammers. But the Oxford pair gated well and boxed him in on the first bend and the Swede had to be content with third place.
 When Geran and Pander went out again four races later Oxford took the overall lead for the first time. But the tactics of Tommy Price, the Hammers' manager, nearly did the trick. Three times he called up his reserves, Stan Stevens and Bob Dugard both off ten yards.
 Dugard had an extra ride in Heat 12, the race which really decided the issue. For two laps Dugard held off Pander but then Geran zoomed up on the outside to take the lead on the bend and then the Dane nipped through to follow his skipper over the line.
 With Knutty taking three points in Heat 13, Oxford needed to share the points to win the title. This time Price sent out Stevens to partner Bengt Jansson. The Hammers came out of the first bend in front and Jansson tried to nurse Stevens home. But when Ron How moved up Jansson had to abandon the plan and went out in front.
 Now it was left to Jimmy Gooch to save the day. After one more circuit he headed Stevens and it was all over bar the shouting.
 The home fans were on tenterhooks throughout the match and they voted this the most exciting match of the year.
 And as if winning the triple was not enough there was another unprecedented incident still to come.
 Five novices went out for one race in the second half and all five spilled off on the tote bend second time round after the leader over slid. They did not get a second chance.

VENUE CUSTOM HOUSE COMPETITION LONDON CUP 2nd LEG

RESULT: HOME WIN AGREGATE SCORE 81.0 87.0

Wimbledon are winners of the London Cup, but the undeniable fact is that West Ham were so unlucky it was untrue. Bengt Jansson suffered magneto trouble in two rides, was carried off after a four-man spill in another and won his other ride so easily that it made you wonder whether Bengt could have won the match alone had the luck been going his way. Throw in mechanical troubles for Alf Hagon and Stan Stevens and you have more valuable points that went down the drain. Then there were a couple of silly falls which cost vital points. If it sounds like a tale of Hammers' woe you're dead right. Wimbledon, holding a 10-point advantage from the first leg, pulled back a Hammers' lead twice and the man mainly responsible was Bob Andrews who was really flying. He was paid for 11 points and was beaten only by Bjorn Knutsson. Bjorn got back on the maximum trail for the first time since the end of July.
