Due to various factors Wimbledon fielded a weakened team in this round. Larry Ross, Edward Jancarz and Stefan Salomonsson all had continental commitments. The previous night Mick Hines machinery was damaged in his machinery in an accident, and Colin Richardson damaged his engine at the Halifax British League match.

Edward Jancarz withdrew from the meeting because a doctor ordered him to have an x-ray on an arm injury, after his first ride.

Belle Vue changed their ride line-up from the printed match programme. Derek Richardson moved down from number 5 to ride as their number 8; Larry Kosta moved up from number 7 to ride as their number 5; Pekka Hautamaki moved up from number 8 to ride as their number 7. Belle Vue team manager Eric Boocock stated these change were made to facilitate rider replacement for Mikael Lohmann, at number 2, despite Derek Richardson currently being third in the Belle Vue averages.
