All home matches were staged at Derwent Park Stadium, Workington.

The club were expelled from the National League on 15th September for "failing to promote the track in a manner satisfactory to the league".

Their results were expunged from the records.

At the time of expulsion, the following National League matches were outstanding:

Home: Berwick, Eastbourne, Mildenhall, Peterborough, Poole, Rye House & Stoke

Away: Poole, Rye House & Stoke

Four of these matches had been scheduled:

Saturday 19/09/1987 Workington v Rye House (start time: midday)

Sunday 20/09/1987 Workington v Stoke (15:00)

Saturday 26/09/1987 Workington v Mildenhall (midday)

With the crowd entering the stadium and the teams poised for a grandstand finish to the National Fours round, the heavens opened and soaked the Powderhall circuit. Nevertheless, the first heat began after a short delay to allow the rain to stop, and heat two was also raced without mishap after a further break for discussions.

In heat three, Glasgow's Jackson Irving twice slithered off on the third bend, then on the final lap Martin Dixon appeared to hit a bump and ride straight into race leader Doug Wyer. At that point the referee called a halt, much to the displeasure of the crowd and the home promotion who felt that with the rain now off and the sun breaking through, the meeting should merely be delayed to allow the track to dry some before continuing.

Promoter Douglas Newlands announced to the disgruntled crowd that an unofficial 'practice' meeting would be staged featuring all the riders who wished to carry on. Fearing repercussions, riders from the visiting teams were advised by their respective managements not to compete and in the end only Gary O'Hare, who was freelance and riding for Middlesbrough on trial, and home-based riders took part.

An impromptu collection amongst spectators raised £310 to be divided amongst the ten riders while club sponsors 'Fast Foods' and the M.S.S.C. each put up £30 as a prize for the Grand Final. Please see next page for results.
